Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives Magda Nico,Ana Caetano,2021-05-12

Structure and Agency in Young People s Lives brings together different takes on the possible combinations of agency and structure in the life course thus rejecting the notion that young individuals are the single masters of their lives but also the view that their social destinies are completely out of their hands How did I get here This is a question young people have always asked themselves and is often asked by youth researchers There is no easy and single answer The lives that are told on one hand and their interpretation on the other may have the underlying idea of own doing or the idea of social determinism or more accurately and frequently a combination of the two This collection constitutes a comprehensive map on how to make sense of youth s biographies and trajectories it questions and reshapes the discussion on the role and responsibility of youth studies in the understanding of how people juggle opportunities and constraints and contributes to escaping what Furlong and Cartmel identified as the epistemological fallacy of late modernity in which young people find themselves responsible for collective failures or inevitabilities It can thus interest students researchers and professors youth workers and all of those who work for and with young people

Information and Communication Technologies for Women's Socioeconomic Empowerment Samia Melhem,Claudia Morrell,Nidhi Tandon,2009-10-02 This paper reviews how women in the developing world access and use information and communication technology ICT It examines the discourse and controversies surrounding the digital gender divide including links to poverty and illiteracy Major themes concerning women and ICTs are explored such as women in the ICT workforce how girls and women relate differently to ICT and opportunities and barriers for women in science and technology in general Current research relating to gender and ICT is often country specific and is more prevalent in developed countries than in developing countries This paper suggests where additional research is needed on barriers to women s entry and access to ICT The overall objective of this paper is to influence policy dialogue around women and ICT for development by raising awareness of the digital gender divide Economic opportunity for women in ICT will not be realized until policies address gender considerations and ensure that ICT
