Woman's Home Companion ,1928      Out of the Mouths of Babes Thomas A. Robinson,Lanette D. Ruff,2011-07-01 The 1920s saw one of the most striking revolutions in manners and morals to have marked North American society affecting almost every aspect of life from dress and drink to sex and salvation Protestant Christianity was being torn apart by a heated controversy between traditionalists and the modernists as they sought to determine how much their beliefs and practices should be altered by scientific study and more secular attitudes Out of the controversy arose the Fundamentalist movement which has become a powerful force in twentieth century America During this decade hundreds and perhaps thousands of young girl preachers some not even school age joined the conservative Christian cause proclaiming traditional values and condemning modern experiments with the new morality Some of the girls drew crowds into the thousands But the stage these girls gained went far beyond the revivalist platform The girl evangelist phenomenon was recognized in the wider society as well and the contrast to the flapper worked well for the press and the public Girl evangelists stood out as the counter type of the flapper who had come to define the modern girl The striking contrast these girls offered to the racy flapper and to modern culture generally made girl evangelists a convenient and effective tool for conservative and revivalist Christianity a tool which was used by their adherents in the clash of cultures that marked the 1920s      A Student Study of Employment and Unemployment of 14-17 Year Olds in Tompkins County, N.Y. ,1971      Tribes Education and Gender Question Sanjay K. Roy,2005 Despite 58 years experimentation with the policy of protective discrimination and planned development a large majority of the 80 2 million tribal people languish in abject poverty landlessness powerlessness illiteracy and malnutrition Being caught in the hangover of the strong patriarchic tradition the women of nearly 700 marginalized tribal communities find themselves highly exploited subjugated and voiceless The present book first of its kind on tribes living in northern districts of West Bengal popularly known as North Bengal explores the areas of subjugation of tribal life and particularly that of the tribal women and analytically presents the case of tribal women in a tea garden locale in the Dooars region of Jalpaiguri district The focus of the study has been education i e how the tribes in general and tribal women in particular are doing in the field of education The field of education is chosen because it is generally considered the most important force of empowerment enlightenment and social transformation and because it provides us with a field to explore the areas of gender discrimination subsumed in tribal patriarchy The book has approached the problem of tribal education and the gender question in education against the backdrop of the dialectics of dominant subordinate relationship between the state and the dominant society on the one hand and the marginalized tribes on the other The uniqueness of the book lies in its critical approach to the state sponsored development strategies and its emphasis on a cultural approach for a better understanding of the problem and for working out alternative development strategies for improving the educational status of the tribal communities Sanjay K Roy Reader Department of Sociology North Bengal University West Bengal had his Ph D from Delhi School of Economics Delhi University and pursued post Doctoral research at the University of Sussex UK and
