The Oxford Handbook of Evidence-based Management Denise M. Rousseau Ph.D.,2012-04-27 From medicine to education evidence based approaches aim to evaluate and apply scientific evidence to a problem in order to arrive at the best possible solution Thus using scientific knowledge to inform the judgment of managers and the process of decision making in organizations Evidence based Management EBMgt is the science informed practice of management Written by leading experts in the study and practice of EBMgt The Oxford Handbook of Evidence based Management provides an overview of key EBMgt ideas and puts them in context of promoting evidence based practice Furthermore it addresses the roles and contributions of practitioners educators and scholars the primary constituents of EBMgt while providing perspectives and resources for each Divided into three sections research practice and education this handbook examines the realities of everyday management practice and the role EBMgt can play in improving managerial decision making and employee well being and instructs educators in their roles as designers of curricula and resources As the first major volume to capture the spirit of this emerging movement The Oxford Handbook of Evidence based Management shows how practitioners can use high quality knowledge gleaned from scientific research in order to make better use of available data and ultimately make more mindful decisions

Working Remotely Molly Virello,2022-05-09 In March of 2020 the world workforce moved to work remotely challenging the nature of what librarians accomplish while not being in their buildings and how libraries serve communities with their doors closed While the initial move to remote work was forced voices emerged that questioned why librarians couldn't work remotely for extended periods of time as part of their regular jobs Librarians are uniquely positioned to move themselves to remote work while also maintaining connections to their patron base and their colleagues but where to start Stepping outside the traditional library space librarians can carve out a space to work remotely while still retaining the ability to reach our patrons provide access to quality programming pave the way for libraries to share information promote resources and even lead change in their communities With times changing and our profession adapting so quickly this practical how to guide will help librarians set up an office space set a routine and adapt plan create implement manage and evaluate their programs and services to the best of their ability in order to unleash their library's potential to engage and wow their patrons and communities With worksheets and templates anecdotes about what works easily and what might prove challenging this book is ideal for today's librarian

The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley,Eunjung Lee,2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective Documentary ,2007 The Horticulturist ,2013 School Library Journal ,2010
