Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1912 Effective Remote Work Dr. James Stanier,2022-03-28 The office isn t as essential as it used to be Flexible working hours and distributed teams are replacing decades of on site open plan office culture Wherever you work from nowadays your colleagues are likely to be somewhere else No more whiteboards No more water coolers And certainly no Ping Pong So how can you organize yourself ship software communicate and be impactful as part of a globally distributed workforce We ll show you how It s time to adopt a brand new mindset Remote working is here to stay Come and join us Remote working is on the rise Whether or not we are remote workers it is likely we are all part of a global workforce We need to learn to interact remotely because we are all remote from someone in some way Rather than simply simulating the way we d usually work together via digital means we have to learn new communication skills and adopt a different mindset in order to work remotely effectively efficiently and most importantly healthily We ll start by getting you set up with the right equipment and habits Then we ll learn the mindset of treating everyone as remote and conquer both synchronous and asynchronous communication You ll learn how to produce amazing artifacts how to communicate clearly and how to manage yourself and your teams Then we ll look at the bigger picture from measuring the remote readiness of your workplace to creating a handbook for your team to exploring remote first culture and tackling burnout and mental well being Fundamentally we ll see that adopting a remote working mindset can do wonders for our organization our effectiveness and our impact in our careers It can even create a more diverse and inclusive industry for us all to work in So what are you waiting for The remote future is now Be a part of it What You Need There are no prerequisites to reading this book other than having had some experience of working in the software industry and a healthy curiosity

Home Care for Older Adults Using Interprofessional Teams Danita H. Stapleton, Sekeria Bossie, 2023-10-16 This textbook fosters a deeper understanding of how home healthcare goals for older adults can be achieved through interprofessional collaboration The contributors create a context where allied health and healthcare professionals can acquire and exchange knowledge about their diverse disciplines and practices for the betterment of the home care population The book also reinforces what the COVID 19 pandemic made quite apparent to health institutions and providers patients can receive adequate and acceptable care within the home setting The pandemic also highlighted the important role that interprofessionalism can play in attaining desired patient outcomes Statistics reveal that the population of persons over the age of 65 years is the largest that it has ever been This volume focuses on older adult patients because caring for these individuals from an interprofessional perspective is now more important than ever Through the ten chapters of this edited book the contributors including home care providers offer their perspectives on interprofessional collaboration and the provision of quality home care services They use the Interprofessional Education Collaborative's IPEC four core competencies as a framework for improving the collaborative practice of home health care for older adult patients with complex medical issues Among the topics covered Medical Social Work and Case Management Skilled Nursing Physical Therapy Occupational Therapy Behavioral Health Care Other Relevant Home Care Services Prosthetics and Orthotics Pharmacy Services Durable Medical Equipment and Nutritional Services Home Care for Older Adults Using Interprofessional Teams is intended for advanced undergraduate and graduate students in health or allied health programs and can be used as a primary text for interprofessional education courses The text benefits students instructors and faculty who have stakes in obtaining positive health outcomes for older adult patients Today more and more programs are requiring the development of interprofessional competencies This book provides a forum where students can obtain in depth knowledge of teaming as well as the roles and functions of various care providers

Flipping the Story on Disability and Violence Patsie Frawley,Nancy Fitzsimons,2025-09-30 Internationally there is a growing awareness that domestic family and sexual violence is a social issue that results from social structures and relational contexts that have positioned women as less than men Alongside this growing awareness has come social action by women and their allies that aim to change these social and relational structures using an intersectional framing of oppression People with disabilities especially people with an intellectual disability have been largely excluded from this social action However for decades they have been challenging the oppressive social and relational structures that frame them as of less value than non disabled people Aligned with this self advocacy are social ecological models that look systemically to understand why interpersonal violence occurs and to prevent violence This book introduces a unique flipped social ecological model and applies it to approaches from across the world that are working from the societal community relationship and individual levels to challenge the vulnerable victim discourse through positioning people with intellectual and other disabilities as social change agents shaping their safer lives Divided into six chapters and providing case examples from Australia the United States New Zealand the United Kingdom Norway Sweden and the Global South this book profiles work done by government and community based anti violence service sectors in partnership with people with intellectual disability and their allies as well as work on sexuality rights and disability advocacy that is contributing to the social effort to prevent interpersonal violence against people with an intellectual disability It is a must read resource for anyone doing interpersonal violence prevention research and work and can be used as primary or supplemental reading for students doing coursework and research in disability studies gender studies community psychology sociology public health and social work The Oil Weekly ,1920 The Economist ,1919
