Building Tomorrow's Biomedical Workforce: Evaluation of How Evidence-Based Training Programs Align Skill Development and Career Awareness with a Broad Array of Professions Adriana Bankston, Rebekah L. Layton, Audra Van Wart, 2025-08-27 Building the future STEM workforce requires robust federal investments to support the next generation of innovators as well as systemic changes to enable graduate and postdoctoral researchers to transition with confidence into the biomedical workforce This effort involves the transformation of the biomedical research enterprise and training environment at all levels but especially at the predoctoral and postdoctoral levels Innovative initiatives in education and training as well as career and professional development of biomedical trainees are necessary to build upon the robust biomedical workforce of today and create and sustain a diverse innovative and highly trained biomedical workforce of

tomorrow An important aspect of supporting the biomedical workforce relates to changes within training and the research enterprise with opportunities for re imagining what STEM education should look like at different levels including providing agency for junior scientists in the field The future of the field should focus on inclusivity supporting trainees from different backgrounds and with diverse perspectives including but not limited to intersectional identities in race ethnicity gender sexual orientation first generation status and international talent in STEM This requires critical policy changes in order to support the transition of biomedical research professionals into the labor market Women's Work ,1977 Sociology, Work, and Organisations Brian McDonough,Jane Parry,2024-10-23 This accessible edited collection provides global context for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying the sociology of work and organisations Composed of short example led chapters this book covers a wide range of contemporary topics including the COVID 19 pandemic the digitalisation of work the gig economy and the shifting roles of women and other marginalised groups The book s innovative approach uses case studies as diverse as work life balance in China gender pay inequity in Britain and Germany and the exploitation of workers on the Mexico US border to incorporate perspectives from both the Global North and South and provide students with the tools to analyse new developments in the rapidly changing world of work The book is particularly concerned with inequalities and marginalisation in the workplace discussing discrimination against women ethnic minorities migrants and older workers The book also explores how increasing digitalisation the rise of the gig economy and the COVID 19 pandemic have impacted working practices and how this relates to precarious employment Other chapters are dedicated to issues of workplace organisation including female leadership work life balance and well being The book goes on to explore how climate change and policies such as Universal Basic Income may shape the future of work in the near future Each chapter also includes useful pedagogical resources including practice exam questions key concepts and definitions and further readings Therefore the book will be therefore essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying the sociology of work business management and organisation The Agile Organization Linda Holbeche,2023-06-03 The key to retaining competitive advantage in a volatile business world is agility The third edition of The Agile Organization shows how to develop capabilities across the organization to adapt With helpful checklists tips and advice this is a practical blueprint to building both agility and resilience at individual team and organizational levels It covers how to design agile organizations as well as how to implement agile models into existing organizations and people practices There is guidance on how agility can be applied to talent management flexible working patterns and the importance of mobilizing and energizing employees for change This edition contains new material on agile mindsets and enterprise agile planning alongside how hybrid forms of working can enhance resilience There is also extended material on how inclusion and wellbeing initiatives can support individual resilience and innovation to improve performance across the organization Case studies include ING the University of California Berkeley the UK National Health Service NHS and SNC Lavalin s Atkins business This book is an essential read for HR and OD specialists senior leaders and managers who want transform their organization and build an agile business

Joy at Work Steve Ahnael Nobel,2023-04-11 Fun and practical guide to finding joy in your work by applying Buddhist values from MBS mover and shaker Steve Nobel With growing numbers of people feeling discontented at work in a post pandemic era of the great resignation Joy Work offers essential reading Whether you are feeling aimless and bored only hanging on for the monthly wage stressed overworked or burnt out this book offers a simple philosophy suffering happens but we can transform it Using Buddhist principles Steve Nobel guides us to realising our innate gifts and reconnecting us with our authentic selves By working through practical exercises and calming meditations you can Learn to trust your instincts Reframe your limiting beliefs Rediscover your creativity Create coping strategies for when you re stressed Renew your love for work The world of work is evolving and Steve prompts you to change with it transform your happy unprofessional life into one of self worth passion and purpose Let loose your trapped potential to find the work you were born to do whether that is falling back in love with your job or moving on and finding different work that inspires you Flexible Lives Stefanie Reissner,Michal Izak,2025-08-07 This geographically and methodologically diverse volume shines the spotlight on a variety of flexible working practices beyond the predominantly Western perspective and zooms in on the gendered aspects of flexible working The increasing use of flexible work arrangements has decoupled work from time and space making the world of work and home increasingly fluid and challenging to manage The Covid 19 pandemic in particular has been a catalyst for questioning accepted norms of where when and how work takes place This book seeks to explore the impact which this reshaping of traditional modes of working has had on workplace interactions and relationships as well as on managing the boundaries between familial and working lives In this way this collection contributes to a wider dialogue concerning the flexibility challenges encountered by white collar workers which is needed now more than ever This book will be relevant to scholars practitioners and policymakers in the fields of gender studies organizational behavior human resources and labor economics It will be particularly useful for those examining the impact of remote work the future of work organizational culture and the social and economic implications of shifting work practices The chapters in this book were originally published in Culture and Organization and are accompanied by an updated Introduction and a new Epilogue

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business

Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breathe freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading
