The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States, 1922 The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States, 1940 Navigating The Digital Shift: Implementation Strategies for Blended and Online Learning John Bailey, Carri Schneider, Tom Vander Ark, 2013-10-09 Our nation's schools stand at an important inflection point in the history of education. Taken together, the implementation of common college and career standards, the shift to next generation assessments, the availability of affordable devices, and the growing number of high quality digital instructional tools create an unprecedented opportunity to fundamentally shift the education system to personalize learning around the individual needs of every student. Digital Learning Now (DLN), a national initiative under the Foundation for Excellence in Education (ExcellinEd) in association with Getting Smart, brings Navigating the Digital Shift: Implementation Strategies for Blended and Online Learning to readers interested in exploring the implementation challenges at the intersection of these shifts. Co-authored by John Bailey, Carri Schneider, and Tom Vander Ark, Navigating the Digital Shift offers updated versions of the eight papers originally released in the DLN Smart Series, including contributions from 11 additional co-authors representing leading organizations such as Public Impact, the International Association for K-12 Online Learning (iNACOL), and The Learning Accelerator. Topics include blended learning, implementation, teaching conditions, and careers, competency-based learning, student data, online learning myths, and student-based funding. Jeb Bush, Governor of Florida from 1999-2007 and Chairman of ExcellinEd, contends that the book provides policymakers and education leaders the tools they need to use digital learning as a catalyst for improved student achievement. AASA 2013 Superintendent of the Year, Dr. Mark Edwards, believes the collection provides meaningful, practical, and poignant advice, as well as commentary regarding the move to college and career-ready standards associated with the shift to personal online learning and digital resources. Rhode Island's Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education, Deborah Gist, describes the book as an invaluable resource that will help educators reimagine what our schools can look like and what our students can accomplish. Journal of the National Education Association, 1921 The Enduring Promise of America's Great City Schools Michael Casserly, 2024-10-30 A sober yet encouraging look at how urban public schools have confronted challenges, defied expectations, and continued to improve. Being a Good Teacher Henry C. Krebs, 1918 Oregon Teachers' Monthly, 1907 Today's Education National Education Association of the United States, 1922 N.E.A. Bulletin, 1922 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1922 A Brighter Choice Clara Hemphill, 2023 In cities across the United States, affluent White newcomers are moving into historically Black neighborhoods, presenting both a challenge and an opportunity for public schools. In many cases, the newcomers either avoid their local schools or use their political power to push aside families who have lived in the neighborhood for years. But there is a third possibility: one that can bring greater equity, and that is the story of this book. At Brighter Choice Community School, a public elementary school in Brooklyn's rapidly gentrifying Bedford Stuyvesant a group of mostly Black parents led by PTA president Keesha Wright Sheppard is learning to share the space with White newcomers Outside the school high rates of homelessness and a global pandemic that disproportionately hit people of color make it hard for children to succeed Inside the school hurt feelings and misunderstandings push parents apart But the parents working through conflicts to build a community of mutual trust and respect are planting the seeds of interracial solidarity to fight for better schools for all Whether these seeds flourish and grow depends on whether parents of all races knowing the history of injustice and inequality can learn to come together to overcome the past

Book Features Follows a multiracial group of parents working with an energetic principal and staff as they learn to bridge the deep divides of race and class Shows why school integration is so difficult to achieve even in integrated neighborhoods Traces the roots of inequality and the history of failed school reforms to address it Incorporates social science research to show the impact of school and neighborhood conditions on academic achievement Argues that socioeconomic integration offers one of the best hopes for improving schools but only if school leaders take care not to marginalize low income children Draws on interviews with parents and staff school visits and observations newspaper articles scholarly books and policy reports on school segregation

A Brighter Choice masterfully chronicles one woman's struggle to maintain a school's mission as a bastion of hope for Black families in the face of gentrification The story shines new light on the process of neighborhood change and provides hope that we can manage gentrification in a way that benefits us all

Lance Freeman Penn Integrates Knowledge Professor of City and Regional Planning and Sociology University of Pennsylvania For many years Clara Hemphill has been one of the most astute observers of New York City's public school system

A Brighter Choice which is incisively reported and beautifully written explores the efforts of a Black majority school in Brooklyn to provide a first rate education for all its students amid the changes of gentrification and the crisis of COVID With an emphasis on the crucial role played by parents Hemphill reverses the usual top down focus on New York City's schools dispels much conventional wisdom and sympathetically shows that it is possible to reconcile Black empowerment with racial and economic integration in public education

A Brighter Choice provides a new way to think about the promise and challenges of public schools today

Peter Eisenstadt author Rochdale Village Robert Moses 6 000 Families and New York City's Great Experiment in Integrated Housing and editor The Encyclopedia of New York State

Clara Hemphill's fascinating stirring book A Brighter Choice suggests skilled and empathetic parents can help to create truly integrated schools that provide our best hope for restoring social cohesion and social mobility in America
