Learning for Uncertainty G. Williamson McDiarmid, Yong Zhao, 2022-01-31 Learning for Uncertainty explores technology's role in education specifically unpacking the question How should educators prepare today's children for a world that has yet to be made As technology evolves faster than our capacity to fully understand the social cultural economic and moral implications of many innovations today's educators are tasked with the unique role of preparing students to capitalize on technology's opportunities and also mitigate its dangers to their society to democratic processes and to institutions Veteran educators McDiarmid and Zhao explore the implications of emerging technologies for future jobs organizations students and learning covering topics such as The future of work and workers as technology eliminates some industries while creating new ones Potential futures both bright and dark awaiting students The qualities dispositions social behaviors and skills that are likely to advantage students in the future The possibility of technology to revolutionize education in ways that will better position students for an uncertain future How technology can free teachers from time and effort devoted to routine matters to instead assuming roles that are potentially more satisfying and supportive of their students learning Learning opportunities and educator roles that have the potential to bring about needed changes Capitalizing on these uncertain times to rethink curriculum pedagogy opportunities to learn and the organization of school as well as the roles of students educators parents and policymakers This latest book in the Routledge Leading Change series is ideal reading for educators and policymakers in both P 12 and higher education interested in ensuring our education systems provide the experiences and learning opportunities necessary to cultivate the innovative iconoclastic and generative thinkers and creators needed for a future that nourishes the minds bodies and spirits of all American Agriculturist ,1924 Our Paper ,1902 Electrical Experimenter ,1928 Moore's Rural New-Yorker ,1912 Oil & Gas Journal ,1927

The Saturday Evening Post ,1916 The God of Go. How Communities React to Automation in the Case of AlphaGo Stefan Raß, 2021-03-30 Academic Paper from the year 2019 in the subject Sociology Miscellaneous grade 1 University of Vienna language English abstract Recent advances in artificial intelligence made it possible for computers to defeat the top Go players in the world a milestone that has been thought to be decades away This has put the Go World in front of a new challenge as they must negotiate their position in relation to this automated program To understand how communities react to automatization this paper follows the commentaries of top Go professionals to understand how they experienced the success of AlphaGo the program that today is the best player of Go worldwide The paper finds three main themes that permeate through the material Some professionals feel alienated by the introduction of this superhuman player but most players see the potential to elevate the quality of play throughout the community Furthermore in contrast to previous Go programs AlphaGo seems to be anthropomorphized by researchers and players due to its significant superhuman capabilities
