Sociology, Work, and Organisations Brian McDonough, Jane Parry, 2024-10-23 This accessible edited collection provides global context for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying the sociology of work and organisations Composed of short example led chapters this book covers a wide range of contemporary topics including the COVID 19 pandemic the digitalisation of work the gig economy and the shifting roles of women and other marginalised groups The book's innovative approach uses case studies as diverse as work life balance in China gender pay inequity in Britain and Germany and the exploitation of workers on the Mexico US border to incorporate perspectives from both the Global North and South and provide students with the tools to analyse new developments in the rapidly changing world of work. The book is particularly concerned with inequalities and marginalisation in the workplace, discussing discrimination against women, ethnic minorities, migrants and older workers. The book also explores how increasing digitalisation, the rise of the gig economy and the COVID 19 pandemic have impacted working practices and how this relates to precarious employment. Other chapters are dedicated to issues of workplace organisation including female leadership, work-life balance and well-being. The book goes on to explore how climate change and policies such as Universal Basic Income may shape the future of work in the near future. Each chapter also includes useful pedagogical resources including practice exam questions, key concepts and definitions and further readings. Therefore, the book will be an essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying the sociology of work, business management and organisation.

Board of Trade Journal of Tariff and Trade Notices, 1919 Private Lectures on Perfect Men, Women and Children, in Happy Families Orson Squire Fowler, 1880 Board of Trade Journal, 1919 The Christian Union, 1890 The Routledge Handbook of Home Elaine Stratford, Katie Walsh, 2025-11-19. This global critical and interdisciplinary handbook rethinks home as a material, emotional and geopolitical site. It examines housing, displacement, domesticity, climate care and the intimate labours, subjectivities and practices of home. Across diverse contexts and with varied perspectives including feminist, queer and decolonial approaches, the handbook's chapters challenge romanticised ideals and illuminate home's inequalities, exclusions and possibilities. Spanning 46 chapters across four parts: Theorising Home, Housing and Home Domesticities and Everyday Life and Global Challenges and Home Futures, this handbook blends conceptual innovation with grounded research. It offers global case studies, theoretical depth and pedagogical tools on home's entanglements with law, human rights, ecology, technology, violence and more, making it indispensable for critical scholarship, teaching and practice. Designed for a broad audience, this handbook supports undergraduate learning, graduate teaching and advanced research. It equips scholars, educators, activists, policymakers and practitioners with essential insights and resources to engage with home as a site of power, identity and struggle in a rapidly changing world.
