Second International Handbook of Lifelong Learning

David N. Aspin, Judith Chapman, Karen Evans, Richard Bagnall, 2012-01-18 The second edition of the International Handbook of Lifelong Learning is extensive innovative and international in scope remit and vision inviting its readers to engage in a critical re appraisal of the theme of lifelong learning It is a thorough going rigorous and scholarly work with profound and wide ranging implications for the future of educating institutions and agencies of all kinds in the conception planning and delivery of lifelong learning initiatives Lifelong learning requires a wholly new philosophy of learning education and training one that aims to facilitate a coherent set of links and pathways between work school and education and recognises the necessity for government to give incentives to industry and their employees so they can truly invest in lifelong learning It is also a concept that is premised on the understanding of a learning society in which everyone independent of race creed or gender is entitled to quality learning that is truly excellent This book recognises the need for profound changes in education and for goals that are critically important to education economic advancement and social involvement To those concerned about the future of our society our economy and educational provision this book provides a richly illuminating basis for powerful debate Drawing extensively on policy analyses conceptual thinking and examples of informed and world standard practice in lifelong learning endeavours in the field both editors and authors seek to focus readers attention on the many issues and decisions that must be addressed if lifelong learning is to become a reality for us all Disruptive Information in Canada Ahmed Al-Rawi, 2025-07-24 This book examines Canadian news content that references different terms related to fake news and disinformation while providing an analysis of Canadian journalists views on how to report on fake news and its impact in today s society Disruptive Information in Canada presents a discussion on the public s discourses on disruptive information in relation to Canadian issues as the majority of previous studies are limited to the US or European contexts It offers unique insight into fake news reporting and discourses in Canada since it examines several main areas like news coverage journalists views advertising and trolling on social media This book offers a new theoretical conceptualization of our post truth era by introducing the concept of Disruptive Information via focusing on news and social media content as well as journalists reporting on these issues With the use of a mixed methods approach it provides different insights into this important topic

What a Life! a Different Kind of Biography Nelson Herbert LaFountain, 2020-11-15 Herein are printed stories and poems I have written over the years in my own way of telling my story Rather than an autobiography I thought this may be a better way of presenting one s life rather than in one mundane book I began with a book and then I found I like to present my life this way These are truthful works and not fiction Some had memory holes that needed filling who said what or who I gave credit to but nothing that would take away from the story It s just the way I tell my life After all my life has been a series of short stories and poems not one continuous biography or even one long story I tried to keep them truthful at all times My poetry is not the deep thinking style but happenings in poetry form I hope you enjoy it The Chapter numbers are assigned to the places I lived when the stories happened not necessarily in the order that they happened You will find the stories and poems are not numbered I began writing short stories and poems before I started my book Then after a few stories I figured it would be a good way to write a book So this is it for good or ill and I am not an author with an extensive vocabulary by any stretch of the imagination I hope you ll forgive that They so I m told are quite interesting and easy reading Take them like vitamins one or two a day I hope you will laugh and cry and enjoy The stories poems musings and thoughts in this book are the product of but not limited to a lifetime of memories love life pain and laughter It is a labor of love in an effort to sing the praises of those that deserve it the most and not for the writer For it was the people that this work was dedicated to that I have to thank for almost all the memories If it weren t for the people there would be absolutely no need for writing this book

Critical Religious Education in Practice Christina Easton,Angela Goodman,Andrew Wright,Angela Wright,2019-04-08 Critical Religious Education in Practice serves as an accessible handbook to help teachers put Critical Religious Education CRE into practice The book offers straightforward guidance unpicking some of the key difficulties that teachers encounter when implementing this high profile pedagogical approach In depth explanations of CRE pedagogy accompanied by detailed lesson plans and activities will give teachers the confidence they need to inspire debate in the classroom tackling issues as controversial as the authority of the Qur an and the relationship between science and religion The lesson plans and schemes of work exemplify CRE in practice and are aimed at empowering teachers to implement CRE pedagogy across their curriculum Additional chapters cover essential issues such as differentiation assessment the importance of subject knowledge and tips for tackling tricky topics The accompanying resources including PowerPoint presentations and worksheets are available via the book s companion website Key to developing a positive classroom culture and promoting constructive attitudes towards Religious Education this text is essential reading for all practising and future teachers of Religious Education in secondary schools
