Computer-Human Interaction Research and Applications Hugo Plácido da Silva, Pietro Ciproso, 2025-03-07 This two volume set CCIS 2370 and CCIS 2371 constitutes the proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Computer Human Interaction Research and Applications CHIRA 2024 held Porto Portugal during November 21 22 2024 The 16 full papers and 45 short papers presented in these volumes were carefully reviewed and selected from 76 submissions These papers focus on the research advancements and practical applications within various areas in the field of Computer Human Interaction including Human Factors and Information Systems Interactive Devices Interaction Design and Adaptive and Intelligent Systems Programming Literature Rebecca Roach, 2025-12-18 This is a book about the messy archival worlds of literature and computing and the myriad of relations that have existed between the two Before J M Coetzee was a writer of Nobel Prize winning novels the South African was a programmer for one of the most significant Cold War supercomputer projects in Britain Experimental British writer Christine Brooke Rose worked at Bletchley Park with Alan Turing When not opining about modernism Canadian literary critic Hugh Kenner was a devoted computer hobbyist Literary scholars have often not known what to make of these other careers intimidating irrelevant outside of the scope of literary studies surely When they do make links it is often via the frame of formal logic that has dominated discussions of both computer history and literary modernism. This book starts from a different assumption that far from irrelevant these material experiences were significant in the development of the literary projects of writers including Coetzee, Brooke Rose, Kenner, William Gaddis and Kamau Brathwaite. It contends that it is in the practice and the archive rather than on the plane of abstraction that we can best see this influence. Addressing literary scholars, media and computer historians and digital theorists alike, Programming Literature productively reframes contemporary debates around artificial intelligence, the value of the humanities and tech culture by emphasizing just how material these worlds have always been.

One of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time. A National Book Critics Circle finalist. One of People's top 10 books of 2021. An instant New York Times bestseller. Named a best book of the year by NPR and Time. A magnificent biography of one of the most protean creative forces in American entertainment history: a life of dazzling highs and vertiginous plunges, some of the worst largely unknown until now, by the acclaimed author of Pictures at a Revolution and Five Came Back. Mike Nichols burst onto the scene as a wunderkind while still in his twenties; he was half of a hit improv duo with Elaine May that was the talk of the country. Next he directed four consecutive hit plays, won back-to-back Tonys, ushered in a new era of Hollywood moviemaking with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? and followed it with The Graduate, which won him an Oscar and became the third highest grossing movie ever. At thirty-five he lived in a three-story Central Park West penthouse, drove a Rolls Royce, collected Arabian horses, and counted Jacqueline Kennedy, Elizabeth Taylor, Leonard Bernstein, and Richard Avedon as friends. Where he arrived is even more astonishing given where he had begun: born Igor Peschkowsky to a Jewish couple in Berlin in 1931, he was sent along with his younger brother to America on a ship in 1939. The young immigrant boy caught very few breaks. He was bullied and ostracized; an allergic reaction had rendered him permanently hairless, and his father died when he was just twelve, leaving his mother alone and overwhelmed. The gulf between these two sets of facts explains a great deal about Nichols's transformation from lonely outsider to the center of more than one cultural universe: the acute powers of observation that first made him famous, the nourishment he drew from his creative partnerships, most enduringly with May, his unquenchable drive, his hunger for security and status, and the depressions and self-medication that brought him to terrible lows. It would take decades for him to come to grips with his demons. In an incomparable portrait that follows Nichols from Berlin to New York to Chicago to Hollywood, Mark Harris explores with brilliantly vivid detail and insight the life, work, struggle, and passion of an artist and man in constant motion. Among the 250 people Harris interviewed: Elaine May, Meryl Streep, Stephen Sondheim, Robert Redford, Glenn Close, Tom Hanks, Candice Bergen, Emma Thompson, Annette Bening, Natalie Portman, Julia Roberts, Lorne Michaels, and Gloria Steinem. Mark Harris gives an intimate and evenhanded accounting of success and failure alike; the portrait is not always flattering, but its ultimate impact is to present the full story of one of the most richly interesting, complicated, and consequential figures of the world.
