Warriors or Peacekeepers? Kjetil Enstad, Paula Holmes-Eber, 2020-04-25 As the past two decades of war in Afghanistan Syria Iraq Darfur and the Congo have revealed war in the twenty-first century looks nothing like the traditional state-to-state conflicts of World Wars I and II which defined the previous century Resolving today's conflicts typically based on complex ethnic religious economic and political dynamics requires far more than mere military strength and technology The military officer of today must simultaneously be a warrior and diplomat combatant and humanitarian worker soldier and peacekeeper But how can today's militaries prepare their leaders for such multifaceted roles Warriors or Peacekeepers seeks to provide answers to this question comparing and contrasting research on the successes and failures of military cultural education and training programs in seven different countries on three continents U S Canada Argentina Norway Denmark Germany and the Netherlands This anthology consists of three main sections The first addresses the theoretical issues of developing the warrior peacekeeper what constitutes cultural competence in the officer profession and the pedagogical challenges associated with developing such competence The second compares teaching practices from various military educational institutions and provides insight into such issues as how language training can build cultural awareness helping officers navigate the ethical and moral challenges of dealing with gender in radically different cultures and the best didactic models to develop reflective skills in military leaders The third section examines the structural and organizational conditions which historically have aided or impeded educational and organizational change in the military This book will appeal to military academic communities educational institutions scholars in security studies peacekeeping and conflict studies and to decision makers in governments and administration Learning and Leading with Technology ,2006 Chess Life ,2005 case with online marketing Business owners can ask their customers how they came to know about them in an effort to learn about their client base but they cannot get as much information as they would be using online tracking The growing online market has made this type of marketing more popular and profitable It has also made it easier to grow and expand whatever type of business an individual is in with the help of numerous professional marketers who will not necessarily appear on their payroll Therefore while its history started long before the invention of the Internet the Internet has transformed it and made it widely available to the masses You will start by learning all about the ins and outs of affiliate marketing and what you need to get your feet wet in the marketing world You will then learn about the importance of choosing the right niche and how to find one that will provide you with a sustainable passive income stream for years to come From there you will learn the key steps to creating a website that will attract the right type of users as well as the importance of SEO and how to ensure that your new website shows up in as many different sets of search results as possible Finally you will learn just what it takes to create the type of quality content that ensures people keeping back for more month after month and year after year Every effort was made to ensure it is full of as much useful information as possible please enjoy
