Managing Innovation Inside Universities

Randolph Hall,2024-06-10 This book offers guidance on capturing the creative forces of the faculty staff and students at universities Given their unique and central role in America and the world it examines how university research learning and service can be integrated to address the needs of society as it is both enabled and changed by technology In turn the book assesses the challenges and opportunities for universities to be more successful and impactful through innovation viewing universities as integrated systems It demonstrates how change can occur both within the knowledge economy and because of innovations within it In doing so the book provides insights into how universities can prosper and lead in a world that is constantly changed by the innovations that universities and industry jointly create The book serves as a guide for higher education policymakers funders donors board members stakeholders and leaders chairs deans provosts presidents through its systematic vision for university innovation and service to society It will also benefit researchers studying innovation in organizations illustrating how systematic approaches arising from management science and operations research can be used toward positive change Lastly strategic partners in industry government and foundations seeking opportunities for partnerships and collaboration with universities will also find it useful

Start-up Wolf Olivia Yijian Liu,2024-05-28

Transnational entrepreneurs with technological know how have been promoted by the Chinese state and academic literature as a central force for regional development of industrial competitiveness But what motivates them and what do they experience and aspire to when building a start up in China This book answers these questions by examining how socially privileged entrepreneurial talents adopt and champion the wolf culture a fast paced competitive and aspirational work culture that has become prevalent since China s mass promotion of entrepreneurship and innovation Based on extensive field research including participant observation and interviews in Shenzhen s high tech industry this book challenges the popular notion of entrepreneurship as entirely self initiated and passion driven Outlining the concrete instruments of governance of the local state the author argues that transnational talent from elite schools or elite professions is often entrepreneured in China Moreover she argues that the different standards of selection of entrepreneurial talents by state and market actors create localised precarious conditions for them This book offers fascinating insights into the contradictions inherent in the Chinese model of entrepreneurship Start up Wolf will appeal to scholars and students of China studies the anthropology of entrepreneurship science and technology studies and economic geography as well as business practitioners interested in innovation and high tech start ups The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
