Artificial Intelligence for Education Mario Allegra, Manuel Gentile, Giuseppe Città, Frank Dignum, Iza Marfisi-Schottman, 2023-11-27 What learning teaching and education will be in the next future is an open question Nevertheless believing that an increasing prevalence of AI may not influence the education field seems objectively unlikely In recent years the new renaissance of AI has stimulated discussion on how advances in AI can influence the educational sector and the future educational policies and the impact of AI on Technology Enhanced Learning TEL On the other side the attention of the education sector in artificial intelligence is complemented by the consideration that since the early days of AI researchers have shown for the education sector which has often seen education as one of the preferred application areas The interaction between the AI and TEL research fields led to the investigation of how the advance in AI could support the development of flexible inclusive personalized engaging and effective learning tools Besides research in this area could be a powerful tool to open the learning black box by providing a deeper understanding of how learning occurs The proposed Research Topic aims to gather contributions that provide a comprehensive picture of how AI is changing educational practices and how the key stakeholders in the educational community i e students teachers faculty and families perceive this ongoing change Relevant topics include but are not limited to AI applications in real world educational settings Intelligent Tutoring Systems Adaptive learning environments Learning design and AI Students profiling definition of the student model and ethical implications Intelligent techniques for objective and integrated students evaluation in TEL Teachers competencies for effective integration of AI into Education Teachers perceptions of AI prejudices and attitudes The role of cognitive architectures in Education Serious games and AI Social robotics in Education

Demystifying Academic

Writing in Higher Education: A Process View on Academic Textual Production Xinghua Liu,Rui Alexandre

Alves,Angelique Aitken ,Josef Schmied,2025-10-30 Academic writing in this Research Topic refers to the type of writing demonstrating students disciplinary knowledge of and proficiency in synthesizing analyzing and responding critically to new information Hyland 2004 Swales 1990 which may include those genres like course essays project reports research proposals lab notes journal articles conference paper theses and dissertations As the current workplaces have become increasingly specialized higher education worldwide has been increasingly charged with the task of developing students academic writing and correspondingly on students parts learning through writing has been necessary for them to succeed in higher education To prepare university students for writing challenges during the past decades numerous studies have been devoted to the study of linguistic and rhetorical resources in students academic writing under such umbrella terms like style reader awareness authorial voice writers identity stance evaluation textual structures steps and moves Charles Hunston Hinkel 2002 However previous research on academic writing has been predominantly focused on the linguistic and rhetorical aspects namely the final product of students writing while the nature and processes of composition students engagement and individual differences and the influence of contextual factors like emerging technology have been under explored Thus the goal of this Research Topic is to bring a process oriented and dynamic perspective to the study of textual production in academic contexts by both encouraging an expanded view of existing research paradigms and also welcoming novel approaches Data can be collected by using corpus building interviews and questionnaires but we would also welcome the use of experimental methods and a mixed method approach for data collection Meanwhile previous research mainly studied university students who were learning English as a second or foreign language hence we also welcome research examining first language writers and students who are learning a second or foreign language other than English We believe for the study of the complex phenomenon like academic writing no single method or tool can suffice Therefore we strongly recommend a more creative perspective in data collection and analyzing and interpreting academic writing Papers can present quantitative data analyses based on experimental design or qualitative data analyses stemmed from more ethnographic oriented research Systematic review studies are also welcome We encourage contributions related but not restricted to the following topics 1 Cognitive processes in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 2 Metacognition and self regulation in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 3 Motivation and self efficacy in academic texts planning composing and revisions and student writers individual differences 4 Linguistic and rhetorical choices identity construction and disciplinary knowledge construction 5 Student writers textual production peer feedback and interactions with discourse communities 6 Affordances and challenges of artificial intelligence AI in the process of academic textual production in higher education
