Prioritizing Skills Development for Student Employability Christiansen, Bryan, Even, Angela M., 2024-02-27 In the throes of a global skills gap and relentless labor market disruptions, organizations grapple with the pressing challenge of aligning workforce skills with the demands of a hypercompetitive economy. Reports from influential entities like the World Economic Forum and McKinsey Company underscore the urgency for strategic interventions to bridge this divide. Despite the pivotal role of higher education and corporate training, recent findings from the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) reveal a persistent struggle in finding candidates equipped with the requisite skills for a multitude of available jobs. The deficiencies span from foundational communication skills to complex problem-solving abilities, posing a formidable hurdle for organizations seeking qualified talent. Prioritizing Skills Development for Student Employability emerges as a solution to the skills misalignment conundrum by delving into the heart of the issue dissecting the intricacies of global workforce dynamics education industry collaborations and the evolving landscape of corporate training By exploring topics such as learning analytics educational artificial intelligence AI and effective leadership in the context of present day human resource management the book provides a comprehensive roadmap for both academic scholars and professionals to navigate the complex terrain of skills development
