Topics in Expert System Design C. Tasso, G. Guida, 2014-06-28 Expert Systems are so far the most promising achievement of artificial intelligence research Decision making planning design control supervision and diagnosis are areas where they are showing great potential However the establishment of expert system technology and its actual industrial impact are still limited by the lack of a sound general and reliable design and construction methodology This book has a dual purpose to offer concrete guidelines and tools to the designers of expert systems and to promote basic and applied research on methodologies and tools It is a coordinated collection of papers from researchers in the USA and Europe examining important and emerging topics methodological advances and practical experience obtained in specific applications Each paper includes a survey introduction and a comprehensive bibliography is provided The Routledge Handbook of

Translation Technology and Society Stefan Baumgarten, Michael Tieber, 2025-10-08 The Routledge Handbook of Translation Technology and Society offers the first comprehensive and critical exploration of translation technologies in the context of globalised multilingual societies within an increasingly AI dominated world This handbook calls for a fundamental rethinking of traditional approaches to translation examining the ethical ideological socioeconomic and environmental implications of digital tools and practices such as professional AI driven translation everyday machine translation crowdsourcing translation or platform based translation work It provides deep insights into pressing issues such as the commodification of language inclusivity in so called low resource languages data colonialism and labour exploitation By questioning conventional science narratives and advocating for sustainable inclusive and equitable applications of translation technologies this handbook empowers readers to engage critically with current trends and challenges in the digital age Readers will benefit from an interdisciplinary approach that combines novel theoretical foundations with empirical research and practical case studies It serves as a foundational reference and a springboard for critical future research in an evolving sociotechnical translation ecosystem where the blurring boundaries between human and machinic agents foster new modes of translator machine interaction This handbook is an essential resource for academics researchers and professionals in translation studies digital humanities science and technology studies or digital discourse studies Chapter 1 15 and introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license

Confronting Digital Dilemmas in Translator and Interpreter Training Pavol Šveda, Martin Djovčoš, Emília Perez, 2025-10-30 This collection explores the challenges and opportunities brought on by developments in emergent technologies for translator and interpreter training Given the growing role of language professionals as mediators in an increasingly fragmented and globalized world this book offers an in depth look at the present and future of translator and interpreter training amidst these changes Featuring perspectives from established and up and coming scholars the volume is organized in three sections taking in turn different dimensions of the current training landscape These parts consider key topics including theoretical foundations and pedagogical innovations ethical considerations and social responsibility and ways forward for adapting training programs to better grapple with new tools Taken as a whole this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars in translation and interpreting studies as well as practicing professionals [Catalog of Copyright Entries. Translating Change Ann Pattison, Stella Cragie, 2022-03-30 Translating Change explores and analyses the impact of changes in society culture and language on the translation and interpreting process and product It looks at how social attitudes behaviours and values change over time how languages respond to these changes how these changes are reflected in the processing and production of translations and how technological change and economic uncertainty in the wake of events such as the COVID 19 pandemic and Brexit affect the translation market The authors examine trends in language change in English French German Italian and Spanish The highly topical approach to social cultural and language change is predominantly synchronic and pragmatic based on tracking and analysing language changes and trends as they have developed and continue to do so This is combined with an innovative section on developing transferable translation related skills including writing and rewriting editing abstracting transcreation and summary writing in view of a perceived need to expand the skills portfolio of translators in a changing market and at the same time to maximise translation quality Each chapter features Pause for Thought activity boxes to encourage active reader participation or reflection With exercises discussion questions guided further reading throughout and a glossary of key terms this innovative textbook is key reading for both students and translators or interpreters in training and in practice A Human Algorithm Flynn Coleman, 2019-10-01 A groundbreaking narrative on the urgency of ethically designed AI and a guidebook to reimagining life in the era of intelligent technology The Age of Intelligent Machines is upon us and we are at a reflection point The proliferation of fast moving technologies including forms of artificial intelligence akin to a new species will cause us to confront profound questions about ourselves The era of human intellectual superiority is ending and we need to plan for this monumental shift A Human Algorithm How Artificial Intelligence Is Redefining Who We Are examines the immense impact intelligent technology will have on humanity These machines while challenging our personal beliefs and our socioeconomic world order also have the potential to transform our health and well being alleviate poverty and suffering and reveal the mysteries of intelligence and consciousness International human rights attorney Flynn Coleman deftly argues that it is critical that we instill values ethics and morals into our robots algorithms and other forms of AI Equally important we need to develop and implement laws policies and oversight mechanisms to protect us from tech s insidious threats To realize AI s transcendent potential Coleman advocates for inviting a diverse group of voices to participate in designing our intelligent machines and using our moral imagination to ensure that human rights empathy and equity are core principles of emerging technologies Ultimately A Human Algorithm is a clarion call for building a more humane future and moving conscientiously into a new frontier of our own design Coleman argues that the algorithms of machine learning if they are instilled with human ethics and values could bring about a new era of enlightenment San Francisco Chronicle Lessons from Exceptional Language Learners Who Have Achieved Nativelike Proficiency Zoltán Dörnyei, Katarina Mentzelopoulos, 2022-10-25 How do some language learners triumph against all odds despite not having obvious heritage links or spending extended periods of time in the L2 environment pre adulthood This book delves into the autobiographical stories of learners who achieve nativelike proficiency opening a narrative window into their experiences and offering insights into their pathways to success The in depth analysis ties together a wide range of potentially relevant topics from motivational vision and international posture to issues of identity endurance and even musical ability among other themes The authors explore whether these successes can be repeated by others and the book will be of use to language teachers interested in learner motivation and the antecedents to high level ultimate attainment The book will also be of great interest to researchers working in the areas of language learner psychology especially in topics concerning language learning motivation identity and narrative inquiry Shifting Categories of Work Lisa Herzog, Bénédicte Zimmermann, 2022-12-30 What do human beings do when they work how is work organized and what are its multidimensional economic social political biographical ecological effects We cannot answer these questions without drawing on the numerous categories that we use to describe work such as skilled or unskilled work domestic work or wage labor gig work or platform work Such categories are not merely theoretical labels as they also have practical effects But where do these categories come from what are their histories how do they differ between countries and how are they evolving Shifting Categories of Work asks these questions illuminating the many ways in which our societies categorize work Written by sociologists philosophers historians and anthropologists as well as management and legal scholars the contributions in this volume contrast different cultural practices and frameworks of categorizing work across different countries Organized around the three axes of un organized work in visible work and in valuable work this book shows how ways of categorizing work express but also recreate lines of privilege and disadvantage challenging our preconceived notions of what work is and what it could be as it invites us to rethink the categories we use for understanding the work we do and hence to some extent ourselves Microcomputing, 1982 Beginning Within Joanne C. Fish, Jamie Doronkin, 2025-09-03 An exponentially increasing number of students experience traumatic events in their daily lives To address this phenomenon Beginning Within Marking a New Journey Toward Equity in Trauma Informed Education Practices delves into the profound impact of adverse childhood experiences ACEs It brings together extensive research thoughtful contemplations and innovative ideas that shed light on some of the lesser explored aspects of trauma informed practices in education Authors in the book have developed chapters around three guiding models for systemic change John Kotter s 1996 2012 Eight Step Model for Organizational Change Fallot and Harris 2001 Five Guiding Principles of Trauma Informed Practice and Smith et al s 2017 five level Building Equity Taxonomy The chapters reflect the growth grief and galvanizing challenges that have shaped and continue to shape our understanding of equality safety and organizational change around trauma informed educational practices Hear from authors experts and leaders in the education field who are leading the way in systemic change ranging from the work in Missouri after the shooting of Michael Brown in Ferguson to university professors and classroom teachers seeking ways to use the past as guideposts toward a new journey of equity in trauma informed practices with each step paved by three research supported tenets for creating a climate of trauma informed practices as offered by the editors of the book The journey to equity begins with a deep dive into each stakeholder s internal beliefs about self care Self care must be a priority otherwise caring for students comes at the lasting cost of secondary traumatic stress STS and teacher burnout A sense of well being must extend beyond the school building and into the community Whether the reader is a pre service teacher a current teacher an aspiring or current administrator or an educator preparation faculty member ideas are shared that can be implemented within a variety of schools programs or academic organizations Perfect for courses such as Trauma Informed Education Trauma Informed Teaching Foundations of Trauma Informed Education Trauma Informed Practices and Pedagogy Trauma Informed Practices and Resilience Trauma Informed Classroom Teachers Introduction to Becoming a Trauma Informed Educator Trauma Sensitive Learning Environments Foundations of Trauma Informed Practices and Wellness PC AI. ,1995
