Analysis of the USAREC Recruiting Incentive, Partnership for Youth Success \(PaYS\) as Viewed by the Big-3 Companies of the Automotive Industry Robert M. Elton, 2001 The Partnership for Youth Success PaYS is a new USAREC formulated recruiting incentive designed to appeal to high school seniors and graduates who would rather enter the workforce than attend college at the end of their initial term of Army service The purpose of the present study was to present a briefing on the particulars of the PaYS program to officials of the Big 3 automakers to determine the views of a homogeneous industry segment concerning the perceived strengths and weaknesses of the program as currently structured This research was designed to offer all feedback gathered to the program s proponent for possible modification of the program to maximize its value as a recruiting incentive An analysis of the feedback from the Human Resources Directors of Daimler Chrysler General Motors and Ford as well as an official of the UAW indicated a uniform and consistent view that while interested in employing former soldiers the companies could not participate in the PaYS program as currently structured Possible modifications of the program are provided as recommendations along with a possible protocol to be conducted on the target market by an appropriate survey agency to determine the extent of interest in the PaYS program as a significant recruiting incentive DTIC

Library Volunteers Allison Renner, 2019-04-20 Volunteers are one of the most overlooked and underused resources available to nonprofits and other organizations This guide will help find willing volunteers in the community and utilize their skills in a way that benefits the volunteer as well as the organization Overseeing volunteers can be a daunting task On top of all of the other duties library staff are typically responsible for creating a volunteer program from scratch can seem nearly impossible The work doesn't stop once the program is created volunteers have to be trained and retained job duties have to be written assessed and refreshed the benefits of the program need to be documented and weighed While volunteer coordinator is easily a full time job it rarely is in the library or nonprofit world Anything that can make volunteer management easier on library and nonprofit staff will benefit everyone involved Library Volunteers A Practical Guide for Librarians covers every aspect of volunteer programs from creating to recruiting to retaining and keeping the opportunities fresh and appealing It has information pertaining to elementary age teenage and adult volunteers including innovative and unique volunteer positions that can be offered to them The book covers both school and public library settings but the information provided can be adapted slightly to benefit any organization that has a need for volunteer help It looks beyond the scope of the library to include information on outreach and partnering with community organizations to provide volunteer opportunities to library patrons and volunteers on a broader scale It is a complete handbook for library and nonprofit employees to use to solve any volunteer issue they might have
