Teacher Distribution in Developing Countries Thomas F. Luschei, Amita Chudgar, 2016-11-08 This book draws on case studies from India Mexico and Tanzania to examine the complex processes that lead to the educational marginalization of children through differential access to teacher quality Growing evidence indicates that access to good teachers can boost the academic success of disadvantaged children and narrow achievement gaps between more and less privileged students Yet in many countries stronger teachers are concentrated in the classrooms of more advantaged children Using a teacher labor markets framework the authors explore the actions of those who employ teachers the demand side and teachers themselves the supply side Examining key junctures in the teacher career pipeline from recruitment and training to retention and transfer the authors find that the actions of the demand side often clash with teachers preferences to live and work in satisfactory environments or to be close to home and family Too often the misalignment of the demand and supply sides places marginalized children at a profound educational disadvantage

Two Decades of Basic Education in Rural China Lu Wang, Keith Lewin, 2016-09-14 This book examines how educational change has progressed in three contrasting areas spread across China since 1990 exploring key issues concerning rural education in poor rich and minority areas Of the three areas covered in this book the first is a rich one near Beijing the second is in the northwest in Shanxi on the Loess plateau and the third is in Sichuan on the high plateau leading to Tibet Central issues include the impact of large scale demographic change and migration with increasing numbers of left behind children in sending areas and large increases in the numbers of inbound migrants in receiving areas dramatic increases in the boarding of children in rural areas as a result of rural school merge changing patterns of teacher deployment recentralization of responsibilities for school financing and growing concerns regarding horizontal and vertical inequalities in both access and participation
