Postfeminism, Postrace and Digital Politics in Asian American Food Blogs Tisha DeJmanee, 2022-12-26 This book examines how Asian American women bloggers challenge dominant race and gender discourses through the practice of food blogging Asian American food blogs which situate recipes and food photography within the personal narratives and domestic spaces of Asian American women offer unique insights into the ways that hegemonic race and gender discourses are negotiated in quotidian life The genre's focus on food provides a particularly rich backdrop for this study as it necessarily implicates family histories gendered labour domestic spaces and the power dynamics of consumption These intimate digital texts therefore provide unique insights into the ways that postfeminist and postrace discourses are encountered in the individual's mundane experiences The author engages a critical cultural analysis of food blogs narratives images communities and platforms expressions of post race and feminism discourses are constrained by the commercial logics of this digital culture The author argues that while Asian American food blogs rarely present a sustained challenge to hegemonic identity representation the processes of reproduction and rupture that define this blogosphere consistently reveal the collective desire to push back against the limits of post identities This is a unique and fascinating study which is ideal reading for students and scholars of gender studies media studies cultural studies and sociology Wallace's Farmer, 2013

Instagram brings is visualization Consider these examples 1 You re a real estate agent and want to highlight the newest mountain home that you have on the market 2 You are a world class hospital that just released a new mother s ward with beautiful birthing and stay suites with a spa like feel 3 You re a restaurant owner and want to highlight your savory and mouthwatering specials each week The above examples are all situations where nothing is actually being transacted online but the business is building brand awareness and drumming up interest so that the consumer will visit their website or pick up the phone to learn more The mysterious Instagram algorithm While we ll never know exactly how Instagram has weighted the various data points that they put into their algorithm we do know that Instagram's back end technology now focuses on relevancy serving up the posts that are most likely to relate to certain users based on their activity on the site. So every time a user clicks through a post or spends a certain amount of time looking at a certain influencer Instagram is capturing that data in some way and building it into their engine to ensure that posts that users won't care about are less likely to show up in their feed. We do know however that Instagram is looking at the following:

- Timely content: This is all about recency meaning if a user hasn't logged in for a while they won't have to scroll through outdated and no longer relevant posts. They'll be shown timely content that matters to them.
- Interest: This is really the secret sauce as Instagram is paying attention and will serve content that it believes the user will be interested in.
- Relationships: Instagram knows what photos users tag and where they comment. So if a user has interacted in some way with certain brands in the past they are far more likely to be served content from that brand or similar brands in the future.

For marketers this is a great thing. It means that as Instagram learns more about your brand your posts and advertisements are more likely to get in front of your niche or target audience.

A few notes about Instagram Shopping: With the release of Instagram Shopping in late 2016 Instagram literally turned their platform into an online marketplace. While it is still a common practice to include website links to your business site and even to a product page now it is possible to allow the customer to transact directly on the Instagram platform. For businesses that want to enable the Shopping capability they need to meet the following requirements:

- You must have an Instagram business profile.
- That business profile needs to be connected to a Facebook catalog.
- Your company's registered headquarters location must be located in one of the Instagram approved countries.
- Items for sale must be physical goods that comply with the trading guideline and terms of use set forth by Instagram.

As this Instagram Marketing Guide is intended as a resource for those getting started with Instagram marketing we will not be providing a deep dive of the Instagram Shopping capability. Here is a Preview of What You Will Get A Full Book Summary. An Analysis Fun quizzes Quiz Answers Etc. Get a copy of this summary and learn about the book.

Peck,2020-10-13 The rise of social media has created alternative methods of advertising for companies Gone are the days where companies would reach their customers through newspapers or television commercials It is now more affordable to connect with customers through online channels such as social media platforms Companies have done an impressive job following their customers and establishing their brands within the same platforms that their customers enjoy However over the years there have been questions surrounding brand trust with many consumers challenging the authenticity of the message shared by brands There has been significant research compiled regarding customer sentiments on brand communication One of the main insights found was that customers trusted messages shared by their peers over messages shared by brands The assumption is that companies have an agenda to make profits but our peers seek to educate and empower us This key assumption is one of the driving forces which has led to the growth of influencer marketing Influencer
