

HOW TO BUILD YOUR PERSONAL BRAND ON LINKEDIN

CREATE A PLAN

To come up with your plan, explore what we like to call “your why.” Your why is essentially what you want to gain from your involvement on LinkedIn.

BRING VALUE

Provide recommendations and endorsements to others, this is an effective way to stay connected with others and help them out.

BUILD RELATIONSHIPS

This can be done by engaging on posts and having discussions. Be sure to provide meaningful comments that go beyond ‘thanks for sharing’ or ‘great insight’.

BE CONSISTENT

You can't simply engage every now and then and still get a lot of value out of it. Remember your plan from the first step? Achieving it means engaging.

A BRAND New You Austin E. Thompson, Jr., MBA, MPM, 2010-02-19 I took personal pride in composing this book on personal branding with a purpose of reaching entrepreneurs who are interested in enhancing their personal self image in parallel with the image of their businesses for working professionals who are on the fast track up the corporate ladder and may wish to gain an edge on the competition and for college students who are preparing for a professional life after their academic journey Personal branding is not new but has become increasingly important for many professionals in recent years who seek a competitive advantage over their counterparts to stand out and be noticed among a plethora of talented candidates This is even more imperative now than a few years ago as we are faced with 10% national unemployment with over 7 million workers laid off since the recession began back in December 2007 In some U S cities unemployment is over 50% with the unemployment rate in some states exceeding the national rate With so many professionals out of work fighting to get re employed in a job and career commensurate with their skills and education the task has become increasingly challenging leaving many unemployed individuals hopeless while confronted with life changing decisions Trying to stand out and be recognized in a dense pool of qualified candidates is not as easy as it may have been in the past with companies directing millions of candidates to their websites on which to post resumes and create lengthy and time intensive profiles The job search has become a faceless and mundane process with very little success and with increased frustration to many who continue to sink into an abyss of debt and personal despair With this situation looming those out of work professionals will have to think outside the box on how to get noticed be recognized and make a positive impression on recruiters and hiring managers constantly searching for
