Easy Hybrid Work Schedule For Teachers:

Teaching and Time Poverty Greg Thompson, Anna Hogan, 2024-12-04 As teacher shortages reach a global crisis point this book explores how time poverty has become a critical factor in the working lives of teachers and school leaders Arguing that we need to move away from framing the problem of teachers work as simply workload this book suggests that understanding time poverty is the first step in moving toward more manageable working lives The book brings together international perspectives on teacher time poverty drawing on theoretical and empirical work to underscore the growing complexity of teachers work and how this impacts job satisfaction stress and feeling that there is never enough time to accomplish all that needs to be done Many policy solutions misdiagnose the problems of teachers work simply suggesting it is an issue of workload The chapters investigate issues of work intensification finding that teachers are not only working longer but also working harder as they manage more complex classrooms and policy mandates This book is essential reading for those interested in understanding how current education policy both produces time poverty and could better identify and respond to the complexities of teachers work

Teaching & Integrating Elementary Technology Mark Page-Botelho, 2009-08 This book is a case study of my experience teaching elementary technology and are designed to remain relevant throughout the years to come These lessons are created to remain relevant for years to come and are based on ISTE s Standards and benchmarks in addition CyberSMART Curriculum has inspired many of the ideas in regards to sequencing The object is to open my experience to others in order to give insight on how to run a flex schedule technology integration program successfully I believe that others can learn from my experiences and construct their program to better serve students

Shifting Self and System Ruby Ababio-Fernandez, Courtney Winkfield, 2023-08-30 The pathway to equity begins with YOU Good intentions are not enough To dismantle the structural inequities that continue to plague our schools dedicated leaders must move beyond buzzword rhetoric to a place of action where concrete steps trace a path to strategic action and sustainable impact The authors of this book have made that shift Drawing from their experiences leading the educational equity agenda for the nation s largest school district they present their model for practical outcome oriented antiracist leadership Features include An original framework built on five interdependent pillars Self Mastery Adaptive Leadership Racial Literacy Emergence and Whole Body Healing Real life vignettes providing insights into the pillars and how they work together Structured opportunities and tools that support processes at the individual and collective development levels Disrupting and dismantling inequities is a complex yet urgent process If you re ready to meet this moral leadership challenge Shifting Self and System will equip you with the knowledge disposition and capacity to create equitable schools and systems for all the students you serve

The Nature and Nurturing of Collaboration Richard L. Hayes, 2024-04-30 Nature and the Nurturing of Collaboration tells the wondrous story of how the natural forces of biological evolution gave way to the co evolution of genes and a nurturing culture that gave rise to us Several million years in the making collaboration is the story of human cultural evolution who we are how we came to be this way and how collaboration enabled humans to dominate the Earth Through a series of genetic accidents disruptive climatic events and changing social condition humans emerged with a set of fortunate adaptations that enabled a general capacity for collaboration Richard L Hayes explains how these adaptations enabled them to work as members of a cultural group in acts of collective intentionality Nurtured through the challenge and support offered by others in close social interaction these capacities enabled the collaborative process of adjusting behaviors and expectations in arriving at mutually determined solutions to mutually defined problems How adults can nurture these capacities in children how organizations can improve members performance and how individuals can become better collaborators are discussed in this volume How building collaborative communities has advanced our mutual understanding across cultures and ensures that collaboration serves the public good offer a tentative end to the story

Leading Together Jonathan Eckert, 2017-11-02 It's about the work not the position Leadership is what is done not who is doing it The leadership work blurs the lines between teachers and administrators Leading Together introduces a collective approach to progress process and programs to help build the conditions in which strong leadership can flourish and student outcomes improve All school teams will find applicable insights as they explore the Collective Leadership Development Model for School Improvement This book Breaks down this innovative model and explains the significance and interdependence of each proven and tested component Asks fearless reflection questions that both challenge and demand deliberate practice Offers case study insights from an urban rural and suburban school Lead and learn together Start building your team with an eye on the end game Leading Together is the best guidance we have to date about how to collaboratively dismantle the wall that has stood between teachers and school administrators for over a century This is a marvelously accessible book in which collective leadership is discovered through the eyes and voices of teachers and principals Joseph F Murphy Frank W Mayborn Chair and Associate Dean Peabody College of Education Vanderbilt University Nashville TN Leading Together includes rich research based stories reflective activities to spark action and optimistic evidence about what this needed shift in school hierarchies means for improving student outcomes Don't just read this adopt it as your guidebook to become an even more influential leader P Ann Byrd COO Partner Center for Teaching Quality Carrboro NC Once again Jon Eckert offers his straightforward no nonsense thinking to busy practitioners His authentic knowledge of everyday life in schools coupled with a thoughtful framework informs every chapter in this book There are elements of his model that can be used right away big shifts or little tweaks His stories and humor make it readable and meaningful for those of us seeking creative and collaborative ways to lead schools and districts Joan Dabrowski Assistant Superintendent for Teaching and Learning Wellesley Public Schools Wellesley MA
