Clearing a Space T. Day, 2022-07-04 This collection draws together the work of authors from Indonesia Australia North America and Europe in the first comprehensive attempt to relate modern Indonesian literature to the insights and approaches of postcolonial theory and literary criticism The essays in the collection range over the history of modern Indonesian literature from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century to its diversity and growth in the 1990s Some offer the fresh readings of well known texts others draw attention to aspects of the Indonesian literary tradition that have hitherto escaped the notice of scholars and critics Grounded in detailed analysis of local contexts yet enlivened by comparative and theoretical perspectives the collection places Indonesian literature at the heart of contemporary cultural concerns

Indonesian Islamic Fiction in the 21st Century: Representations of the Other in the Works of Forum Lingkar Pena Muh Arif Rokhman, 2022-01-28 THIS BOOK examines a selection of fictional works by writers belonging to the Indonesian association of writers Forum Lingkar Pena Pen Circle Forum hereafter referred to as FLP Figures from 2010 suggest that this organisation had around 5 000 members across 93 Indonesian branches and ten overseas branches Writers recruited and trained by FLP have produced approximately nine hundred published works Their works are often categorised as Islamic or religious literature sastra religi This label ling of FLP s literary output as Islamic literature has arisen principally be cause of the publicly expressed aims and beliefs of key FLP figures which include such notions as sastra dakwah literature for religious propaga tion In order to contextualise the emergence of FLP in the final years of the twentieth century and to locate this organisation within wider Indo nesian literary developments it is necessary to take account of cultural debates that came to the fore with the profound social and political changes which accompanied the end of the New Order regime in 1998 A Literary Mirror I . Nyoman Darma Putra, 2011-01-01 A Literary mirror is the first English language work to comprehensively analyse Indonesian language literature from Bali from a literary and cultural viewpoint It covers the period from 1920 to 2000 This is an extremely rich field for research into the ways Balinese view their culture and how they respond to external cultural forces This work complements the large number of existing studies of Bali and its history anthropology traditional literature and the performing arts A Literary Mirror is an invaluable resource for those researching twentieth century Balinese authors who wrote in Indonesian Until now such writers have received very little attention in the existing literature An appendix gives short biographical details of many significant writers and lists their work

Gender, Violence and Power in Indonesia Katharine McGregor, Ana Dragojlovic, Hannah Loney, 2020-03-13 This book uses an interdisciplinary approach to chart how various forms of violence domestic military legal and political are not separate instances of violence but rather embedded in structural inequalities brought about by colonialism occupation and state violence The book explores both case studies of individuals and of groups to examine experiences of violence within the context of gender and structures of power in modern Indonesian history and Indonesia related diasporas It argues that gendered violence is particularly important to consider in this region because of its complex history of armed conflict and authoritarian rule the diversity of people that have been affected by violence as well as the complexity of the religious and cultural communities involved The book focuses in particular on textual narratives of violence visualisations of violence commemorations of violence and the politics of care      Asian and Pacific Cosmopolitans K. Robinson,2007-11-06 This new collection of essays explores questions of subjectification selfhood and identity in the contemporary Asia Pacific examining the way that migrant lives express the complex interplay of local and global processes in the post Cold War era and collectively questioning the novelty of the global age in this region      The Southeast Asian Woman Writes Back Grace V. S. Chin,Kathrina Mohd

Daud,2017-12-04 This collection of essays examines how Southeast Asian women writers engage with the grand narratives of nationalism and the modern nation state by exploring the representations of gender identity and nation in the postcolonial literatures of Brunei Darussalam Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines Bringing to light the selected works of overlooked local women writers and providing new analyses of those produced by internationally known women authors and artists the essays situate regional literary developments within historicized geopolitical landscapes to offer incisive analyses and readings on how women and the feminine are imagined represented and positioned in relation to the Southeast Asian nation The book which features both cross country comparative analyses and country specific investigations also considers the ideas of the nation and the state by investigating related ideologies rhetoric apparatuses and discourses and the ways in which they affect women s bodies subjectivities and lived realities in both historical and contemporary Southeast Asian contexts By considering how these literary expressions critique contest or are complicit in nationalist projects and state mandated agendas the collection contributes to the overall regional and comparative discourses on gender identity and nation in Southeast Asian studies      Clearing a Space Keith Foulcher,Tony Day,2002 Papers delivered at a workshop on

Postcoloniality and the Question of Modern Indonesian Literature in May 1998 at University of Sydney      Cultures at War Tony Day,Maya H. T. Liem,2018-08-06 The Cold War in Southeast Asia was a many faceted conflict driven by regional historical imperatives as much as by the contest between global superpowers The essays in this book offer the most detailed and probing examination to date of the cultural dimension of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian culture from the late 1940s to the late 1970s was primarily shaped by a long standing search for national identity and independence which took place in the context of intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union with the Peoples Republic of China emerging in 1949 as another major international competitor for influence in Southeast Asia Based on fieldwork in Burma Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam the essays in this collection analyze the ways in which art literature film theater spectacle physical culture and the popular press represented Southeast Asian responses to the Cold War and commemorated that era s violent conflicts long after tensions had subsided Southeast Asian cultural reactions to the Cold War involved various solutions to the dilemmas of the newly independent nation states of the region What is common to all of the perspectives and works examined in this book is that they expressed social and aesthetic concerns that both antedated and outlasted the Cold War ones that never became simply aligned with the ideologies of either bloc Contributors Francisco B Benitez University of Washington Bo Bo Burmese writer SOAS University of London Michael Bodden University of Victoria Simon Creak Australian National University Gaik Cheng Khoo Australian National University Rachel Harrison SOAS University of London Barbara Hatley University of Tasmania Boitran Huynh Beattie Asiarta Foundation Jennifer Lindsay Australian National University

Indonesia-Malaysia Relations Marshall Clark, Juliet Pietsch, 2014-03-26 Drawing on social media cinema cultural heritage and public opinion polls this book examines Indonesia and Malaysia from a comparative postcolonial perspective The Indonesia Malaysia relationship is one of the most important bilateral relationships in Southeast Asia especially because Indonesia the world's fourth most populous country and third largest democracy is the most populous and powerful nation in the region Both states are committed to the relationship especially at the highest levels of government and much has been made of their sibling identity The relationship is built on years of interaction at all levels of state and society and both countries draw on their common culture religion and language in managing political tensions In recent years however several issues have seriously strained the once cordial bilateral relationship Among these are a strong public reaction to maritime boundary disputes claims over each country's cultural forms the treatment of Indonesian workers in Malaysia and trans border issues such as Indonesian forest fire haze Comparing the two nations engagement with cultural heritage religion gender ethnicity citizenship democracy and regionalism this book highlights the social and historical roots of the tensions between Indonesia and Malaysia as well as the enduring sense of kinship Wacana journal of the humanities of Indonesia, 2009

Indonesian Postcolonial Theatre Evan Darwin Winet, 2010-03-10 Drawing examples from as early as a 1619 production of Hamlet and as recent as 2007 performances by Indonesia's most famous presidential impersonator this book considers how theatre functions as a uniquely effective medium for representing the contradictions of Indonesian identity in the urban colonial postcolonial metropole

The Poetics of Indonesian and Malaysian Women's Writing Norhayati Ab. Rahman, 2016

Taboo and Transgression in Contemporary Indonesian Art Amanda Katherine Rath, 2005 Maskulinitas Marshall Alexander Clark, 2010 Maskulinitas is a ground breaking treatment of the representation of men and masculinity in Indonesian culture from Suharto's New Order era to the present The book includes critical analyses of Indonesian cultural expressions in literature cinema society and politics Drawing on the ideas of Bakhtin Bourdieu Maier and others author Marshall Clark explores with acute insight and a critical eye constructions of the masculine in contemporary Indonesian society Maskulinitas also challenges the way scholars of Indonesia have held firm to the categories and frameworks of gender studies a field still often equated with women's studies while offering fascinating insights into representations and images of men as engendered and engendering subjects As a timely addition to the generally conservative field of scholarship on gender in Southeast Asia Maskulinitas demonstrates that gender studies need to encompass the man question especially considering Indonesia's strongly patriarchal society where the norms of feminine subordination and submission are legitimized by the ideologies of the state and the strictures of religion. Ultimately this book challenges the reader with the notion that if the subordinate status of Indonesian women is to be highlighted and some sort of gender equality achieved then the representations, subjectivities and practices of Indonesian men must be addressed. Anthropologica, 2005. Includes reports of meetings of the institute. Review of Indonesian and Malaysian Affairs, 2007. Journal of the Malaysian Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, 2007. Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London. University of London. School of Oriental and African Studies, 2004. Modern Short Fiction of Southeast Asia Teri Shaffer Yamada, 2009. A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title. Modern Short Fiction of Southeast Asia surveys the historical and cultural significance of modern short fiction in nine Southeast Asian nations: Laos, Cambodia, Myanmar, Burma, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, the Philippines, Thailand, and Vietnam. Written in an accessible style without jargon, this book will be of great interest to students of modern literature and general readers interested in Southeast Asia as well as scholars of East and South Asia who wish to compare the literary developments of those areas to Southeast Asia. The interdisciplinary approach suggests that literature has made a significant contribution to the social and political history of the region and the authors address topics of significance to scholars of numerous disciplines including anthropology, cultural studies, history, literature, political science, and sociology. Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van Nederlandsch-Indië, 2006. Literatuur overzicht issued with v 95.
