

- Race is difficult to determine from most skeletal remains, especially since pure races are becoming uncommon.
- The classic system had 3 racial groups, though now there's 6:
  - Caucasian—European, Middle Eastern, and Indian descent
  - Black —African, Aborigine, and Melanesian descent
  - Asian—Asian, Native American and Polynesian descent

Diversity James Lynch, Celia Modgil, Sohan Modgil, 2013-10-28 First published in 1992 In this volume the first of this series many of these themes and issues are rehearsed although the major focus is on the diversity of approaches to social and narrower educational policy and practice in culturally diverse societies Authors have been invited to review critically discuss and seek to extend the theoretical and ideological assumptions underlying policy and practice in their chosen field

Searching for Sasquatch B. Regal, 2011-04-11 The first academic study of this subject is an entertaining look at the search for Sasquatch which considers not just the nature of monsters and monster hunting in the late 20th century but the more important relationship between the professional scientists and amateur naturalists who hunt them and their place in the history of science Cultural Anthropology John H. Bodley, 2011-04-16 This introductory text introduces basic concepts in cultural anthropology by comparing cultures of increasing scale and focusing on specific universal issues throughout human history Cultural materials are presented in integrated ethnographic case studies organized by cultural and geographic areas to show how ideological social organization and material features fit together in specific sociocultural systems John H Bodley explicitly seeks a balance between ecological materialist and cultural ideological explanations of sociocultural systems while stressing the importance of individual power seeking and human agency Part One examines domestic scale autonomous tribal cultures Part Two presents politically organized class based civilizations and ancient empires in the imperial world Part Three surveys global industrial market based civilizations in the contemporary commercial world Cultural Anthropology uniquely challenges students to consider the big questions about the nature of cultural systems
