People Management ,2023-04-26

Managing people is the chief task of human resources officers in businesses and industries worldwide. It is a difficult and demanding task especially in this era of highly dynamic and constantly changing business environments. In addition, the COVID 19 pandemic led to major and perhaps irreversible changes in how people work and how businesses operate. This book provides a comprehensive overview of what it means to manage people in the modern world. It includes sixteen chapters organized into three sections: People Management in a VUCA World, A Bright Future for People Management, and People Management for People Happiness. Chapters address such topics as dealing with staff turnover, human resource development strategies during and post crisis, diversity management, the relationship between career development and value proposition, the happy productive worker thesis (HPWT) and much more. Remote Cooperation: CSCW Issues for Mobile and Teleworkers Alan J. Dix, Russell Beale, 1996-10-18. We are constantly being told we are living in a shrinking world, but for many the opposite seems to be the case. Our work is increasingly being done out of the traditional office environment whilst traveling at clients' premises or at home. We are living further from where we work and we work for global organizations and our colleagues and contacts may be in different countries or different continents. At the same time, our lives are more and more dependent on constant access to information and one another, but our connectivity whilst on the move or at home is often far less efficient than that of the fixed office. How do we work cooperatively when we are so far apart? Careers & the Disabled, 1997. BIG BOOK OF JOBS, 2009-2010 McGraw-Hill Editors, 2008-09-23.
