Claude Simon Mary Orr, 1993 Pictures Into Words Ari I. Blatt, 2012-05-01 The explosive proliferation of pictures in advertising and pop culture mass media and cyberspace following World War II along with the profusion of critical thinking that tries to make sense of it has had wide ranging implications for cultural production as such Pictures into Words explores how this proliferation of graphic images has profoundly affected narrative writing in France especially as Ari J Blatt argues the structure content and symbolic logic of contemporary French fiction By examining a specific corpus of narratives by authors Claude Simon Georges Perec Pierre Michon and Tanguy Viel books that originate amid conjure up and indeed are essentially about pictures Blatt addresses the most salient questions pertaining to the relationship between literature and visual culture today Each of the novels considered here engages the work of several postwar artists from Robert Rauschenberg Andy Warhol Vincent van Gogh and Orson Welles to Jeff Koons Joseph L Mankiewicz Pierre Huyghe and Marcel Duchamp As Blatt's cross disciplinary readings show despite their gleeful raiding of the visual archive to generate and enrich their stories many contemporary narratives that tell tales about pictures simultaneously express a cautious skepticism toward vision and visual representation Pictures into Words examines how such novels while seemingly complicit with the visual simultaneously write back against the images they exploit reclaiming some of literature s lost ground in our visually inundated world Nobel Prize Laureates in Literature Thomson Gale (Firm), 2007 A biographical bibliographical guide to the writers who have received the Nobel Prize in Literature Provides entries for each Nobel Prize laureate Entries also include the Nobel Prize in Literature presentation speech for the corresponding year and the banquet speech given by the Nobel Prize laureate French Fiction Revisited Leon Samuel Roudiez, 1991 The most interesting French fiction since World War II is also the most revolutionary exploring new narrative techniques and incorporating challenging new ideas in aesthetics politics psychoanalysis gender linguistics and philosophy This fiction looks strange and forbidding to American readers however which makes Roudiez's overview of postwar French fiction a welcome guide In a revised and updated version of his French Fiction Today Roudiez includes chapters on an important precursor Raymond Roussel and on thirteen of the most significant innovators in French fiction A concluding chapter discusses younger writers like Muriel Cerf and Patrick Grainville who are carrying on this revolutionary activity and an extensive bibliography includes all English translations of their work As the Virginia Quarterly Review said of the first edition This is a masterful analysis which should serve handily as a thoroughly reliable guide and reference tool for many years to come French Twentieth Bibliography Douglas W. Alden, Peter C. Hoy, 1992-04 This series of bibliographical references is one of the most important tools for research in modern and contemporary French literature No other bibliography represents the scholarly activities and publications of these fields as completely French Forum, 1994 Romance Studies, 1993 French Studies, 1947

The Visual Poetry of Vicente Huidobro, José Juan Tablada, and Octavio Paz Maria Ines Fleck, 1995 The Fascination of the New James Yushin Kwak,1997 The Poetics of Memory Thomas Wägenbaur, 1998 The contributors to this volume share a Poetics of Memory as the constant shift between representation in different kinds of cultural archives and its performance in various acts of cultural recollection They are engaged in four main projects of mnemonic inquiry The first deals with the history of the subject and the moment of recollection. The second opens the scope of an aesthetic reading of literary texts towards cultural memory in general The third examines the nature of literary memory as such The final group of contributors delimits the literary text towards intertextuality and electronic hypertext which challenges but also confirms the proposed Poetics of Memory The Pathos of the Real Robert Buch, 2010-12-15 This book is about the ambition in a set of paradigmatic writers of the twentieth century to simultaneously enlist and break the spell of the real their fascination with the spectacle of violence and suffering and the difficulties involved in capturing this kind of excess by aesthetic means The works at the center of this study by Franz Kafka Georges Bataille Claude Simon Peter Weiss and Heiner M ller zero in on scenes of agony destruction and death with an astonishing degree of precision and detail The strange and troubling nature of the appeal engendered by these sights is the subject of The Pathos of the Real Robert Buch shows that the spectacles of suffering conjured up in these texts are deeply ambivalent available neither to cathartic relief nor to the sentiment of compassion What prevails instead is a peculiar coincidence of opposites exaltation and resignation disfiguration and transfiguration agitation and paralysis Featuring the experiences of violent excess in strongly visual and often in expressly pictorial terms the works expose the nexus between violence and the image in twentieth century aesthetics Buch explores this tension between visual and verbal representation by drawing on the rhetorical notion of pathos as both insurmountable suffering and codified affect and the psychoanalytic notion of the real that is the disruption of the symbolic order In dialogue with a diverse group of thinkers from Erich Auerbach and Aby Warburg to Alain Badiou and Jacques Lacan

The Pathos of the Real advances an innovative new framework for rethinking the aesthetics of violence in the twentieth century Claude Simon, La route des Flandres Alain Cresciucci,1997 Claude Simon Mária Minich Brewer,1995 Simon s works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life Maria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural
