Giants Krings-Ernst Gallery, Claude Viallat, 2007 Claude Viallat , Claude Viallat. Ediz. italiana e inglese Luca Massimo Barbero, Claude Viallat, Annamaria Maggi, 2003

In the beginning of the 1960s in the stimulating and lively cultural climate of France Claude Viallat Nîmes 1936 was moved to revisit the genealogy of abstract painting and the seduction of Art Informel Without neglecting Cézanne and Matisse he identified a primitive form with distinct and inimitable characteristics essential and almost hypnotic Abstraction first appeared in his work during his formative years at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris when he regularly visited Raymond Leguelt's studio and where he met among others Robert Rauschenberg Jackson Pollock Sam Francis and Morris Louis It was in this period that he definitively abandoned verticality no longer using an easel he painted on the floor sometimes outdoors in sunlight applying a mixture of gelatin pigment and water directly onto the untreated canvas While in the group Ecole de Nice he exhibited from 1966 to 1969 with artists belonging to such movements as Nouveau Réalisme Arman Fluxus Ben Vautier Bernard Venet and with artists who would later work with him in the group Supports Surfaces holding exhibitions in places not designated for art such as beaches village streets nature spots thus vindicating for the province a role no less important than the exclusive Paris In 1988 he represented France at the Venice Biennale He currently teaches at the Ecole Supérieure des Beaux Arts in Nîmes where he lives and works Book jacket Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts "Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971" Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the Côte d'Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau Réalisme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready-made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s Contemporary French Art: Eleven studies Michael Bishop, 2008 Ben Vautier Niki De Saint Phalle Fran ois Morellet Louise Bourgeois Alexandre Hollan Claude Viallat Sophie Calle Bernard Pag s Jean Pierre Pincemin Annette Messager G rard Titus Carmel eleven major French artists of the last forty years or so examined in the light of their uniqueness and their rootedness the specificities of their differing and at times overlapping plastic practices and the swirling and often highly hybridised conceptions entertained in regard to such practices Thus does analysis range from discussion of the feisty Fluxus inspired free spirited funkiness of Ben Vautier s work to the various modes of transcendence of trauma and haunting fear generated by the exceptional gestures of Niki de Saint Phalle and Louise Bourgeois to the alyrical formalism yet imbued with irony and ludicity of Fran ois Morellet through to the serene intensities of Alexandre Hollan s vies silencieuses the infinite a signatures of Claude Viallat s adventure in the sheer joy of a poiein of self reflexive coloration the powerfully elegant and muscular disarticulations of Bernard Pag s sculpture the great sweep through art s history implied by Jean Pierre Pincemin s chameleon like gestures the vast swirling programme of socio psychological analysis the arts of Annette Messager and Sophie Calle offer in their radically distinctive manners the obsessively serialised oeuvre of G rard Titus Carmel allowing a burrowing deep into the opaque logic of a real though dubious presence to the world Claude Viallat; Texte de Ann Hindry Claude Viallat, Ann Hindry, Daniel Templon (Gallery),

Contemporary Artists: L-Z Sara Pendergast, Tom Pendergast, 2002 Arranged alphabetically from Magdalena Abakanowicz to Tadaaki Kuwayama this volume provides a biography of the artist a selected list of exhibitions a list of public collections that include work by the artist and more Claude Viallat , 2017 Amsterdam, Paris, Düsseldorf Solomon R.
