Claude McKay A Black Poets Struggle For Identity:

Claude McKay Tyrone Tillery,1992 A fresh interpretation of the life works and social context of Jamaican poet McKay 1890 1948 one of the central figures of the Harlem Renaissance Tillery is a member of the history department at Wayne State U Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Harlem Shadows Claude McKay,2021-08-31 A collection of poetry from the award winning Jamaican American author of Home to Harlem In Harlem Shadows poet and writer Claude McKay touches on a variety of themes as he celebrates his Jamaican heritage and sheds light on the Black American experience While the title poem follows sex workers on the streets of Harlem in New York City the sight of fruit in a window in The Tropics of New York reminds the author of his old life in Jamaica If We Must Die was written in response to the Red Summer of 1919 when Black Americans around the country were attacked by white supremacists And in After the Winter McKay offers a feeling of hope Born in Jamaica in 1889 McKay first visited the United States in 1912 He traveled the world and eventually became an American citizen in 1940 His work influenced the likes of James Baldwin and Richard Wright One of the great forces in bringing about the Negro literary Renaissance James Weldon Johnson author of The Autobiography of an Ex Colored Man This is McKay s first book of verse to be published in the United States but it will give him the high place among American poets to which he is rightfully entitled Walter F White author of Flight The Cambridge History of American Modernism Mark Whalan,2023-07-20 The Cambridge History of American Modernism examines one of the most innovative periods of American literary history It offers a comprehensive account of the forms genres and media that characterized US modernism coverage ranges from the traditional such as short stories novels and poetry to the new media that shaped the period s literary culture such as jazz cinema the skyscraper and radio This volume charts how recent methodologies such as ecocriticism geomodernism and print culture studies have refashioned understandings of the field and attends to the contestations and inequities of race sovereignty gender sexuality and ethnicity that shaped the period and its cultural production It also explores the geographies and communities wherein US modernism flourished from its distinctive regions to its metropolitan cities from its hemispheric connections to the salons and political groupings that hosted new cultural collaborations Claude McKay Kotti Sree Ramesh,Kandula Nirupa Rani,2006-08-02 The gifted and rebellious writer Claude McKay grew up in the British West Indies and then moved to the United States As he traveled from Jamaica to Harlem and then to Europe and Africa he embraced various causes and political ideologies that made their way into his writings Brought up as a colonial in the British West Indies he found racial oppression as an immigrant in the United States His struggle for self definition and self determination was manifest in his writings and laid the foundation for the Harlem Renaissance and negritude movements African American scholarship in the United States tends to focus on McKay s American productions such as his poetry and novels like Home to Harlem while critics in the Caribbean focus on his works there novels like Banana Bottom and dialect poetry This study has undertaken to explore comprehensively the life and works of Claude McKay framed within colonial and cross cultural experiences While dealing with pertinent issues like identity race exile ethnicity and sexuality the work examines all the facets of this influential 20th century author a man trying to solve the problem of his own identity in a world determined to marginalize him A Long Way From Home Claude McKay,2023-11-20

A Long Way from Home is a novel by Claude McKay a Jamaican American writer and poet Published in 1937 the book is set in the early 20th century and follows the experiences of its protagonist a black man named Jean Jacques Jake Delaney as he embarks on a journey of self discovery and cultural exploration The novel begins with Jake leaving his native Jamaica to seek opportunities in the United States He arrives in the bustling city of New York during the height of the Harlem Renaissance a cultural and artistic movement in African American history As Jake navigates the complexities of life in the United States he becomes deeply involved in the cultural and political scene of Harlem Throughout the novel Jake grapples with questions of identity belonging and race He is torn between the cultures and traditions of his Caribbean homeland and the African American experience in Harlem His journey leads him to interact with a diverse cast of characters including activists artists and individuals from different walks of life A Long Way from Home explores themes of race identity belonging and cultural diversity Claude McKay s writing delves into the personal and societal struggles that black individuals faced during this period in American history The novel offers a deep exploration of the complexities of the African diaspora and the various ways in which individuals confront their heritage and adapt to new environments In essence A Long Way from Home is a poignant and thought provoking work of literature that delves into the intricacies of black identity and culture during the early 20th century and it remains a significant part of the Harlem Renaissance literary canon Cosmopolitan Vistas Tom Lutz,2004

In a major statement on the relation of art and politics in America Tom Lutz identifies a consistent ethos at the heart of American literary culture for the past 150 years Through readings of Sherwood Anderson Willa Cather Hamlin Garland Ellen Glasgow Sarah Orne Jewett Sinclair Lewis Edgar Lee Masters Claude McKay Edith Wharton Anzia Yezierska and others Lutz identifies what he calls literary cosmopolitanism an ethos of representational inclusiveness of the widest possible affiliation and at the same time one of aesthetic discrimination and therefore exclusivity At the same time that it embraces the entire world in Lutz s view literary cosmopolitanism necessitates an evaluative stance and it is this doubleness this combination of egalitarianism and elitism that animates American literature since the Civil War The nineteenth century s realists and sentimentalists the writers of the Harlem Renaissance and of the Southern Renaissance the firebrands who brought in the new canon and the traditionalists who struggled to save the old all ascribe Lutz argues to the same cosmopolitan values however much they disagree on what these values demand of those who hold them Questions of Possibility: Contemporary Poetry and Poetic Form David Caplan,2006-09-26

Questions of Possibility examines the particular forms that contemporary American poets favor and those they neglect The poets choices reveal both their ambitions and their limitations the new possibilities they discover and the traditions they find unimaginable By means of close attention to the sestina ghazal love sonnet ballad and heroic couplet this study advances a new understanding of contemporary American poetry Rather than pitting closed verse against open and traditional poetry against experimental Questions of Possibility explores how poets associated with different movements inspire and inform each other s work Discussing a range of authors from Charles Bernstein Derek Walcott and Marilyn Hacker to Agha Shahid Ali David Caplan treats these poets as contemporaries who share the language not as partisans assigned to rival camps The most interesting contemporary poetry crosses the boundaries that literary criticism draws synthesizing diverse influences and establishing surprising affinities In a series of lively readings Caplan charts the diverse characteristics and accomplishments of modern poetry from the gay and lesbian love sonnet to the currently popular sestina Let Nobody Turn Us Around Manning Marable, Leith Mullings, 2009-01-16 This anthology of black writers traces the evolution of African American perspectives throughout American history from the early years of slavery to the end of the twentieth century The essays manifestos interviews and documents assembled here contextualized with critical commentaries from Marable and Mullings introduce the reader to the character and important controversies of each period of black history The selections represent a broad spectrum of ideology Conservative radical nationalistic and integrationist approaches can be found in almost every period yet there have been striking shifts in the evolution of social thought and activism The editors judiciously illustrate how both continuity and change affected the African American community in terms of its internal divisions class structure migration social problems leadership and protest movements They also show how gender spirituality literature music and connections to Africa and the Caribbean played a prominent role in black life and history Black American Prose Writers of the Harlem Renaissance Harold Bloom, 1994 Covers more than 1 400 of the most important authors who write in English Ranges from the author of Beowulf to present day writers Includes writers in the Caribbean Africa Asia Canada Australia and New Zealand Each volume covers approximately 12 authors and includes a concise biography a selection of critical extracts and a complete and up to date bibliography of the author s separate publications Carl W. Peters Richard H. Love, Carl William Peters, 1999 Throughout his life Peters depicted the ordinary places and people of America From Rochester to Rockport Peters made an amazingly coherent group of fascinating masterful American pictures African American Poets Joyce Pettis, 2002-06-30 Profiles 46 African American poets from the 18th century to the present including George Moses Horton Maya Angelou Gwendolyn Brooks Countee Cullen Rita Dove Langston Hughes Ishmael Reed Sonia Sanchez Jean Toomer and Phillis Wheatley along with information on various editions of their work and bibliographies Harlem Renaissance Re-examined Victor A. Kramer, Robert A. Russ, 1997 While the height of the Harlem Renaissance occurred more than seventy years ago in many ways it still has an effect on our culture The Harlem Renaissance Re examined brings to light long neglected writers and artists from that era for a second look at the roles that they played in developing the arts in America and for a re evaluation of thier talents The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature

William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature

Twentieth-century American Poetry Dana Gioia, David Mason, Meg Schoerke, 2004 Publisher Description

The Harlem Group of Negro Writers, By Melvin B. Tolson Melvin B. Tolson, 2001-03-30 Melvin B. Tolson 1898 1966 was both a participant in and historian of the Harlem Renaissance probably the most significant movement in African American literature and culture Known mostly for his poetry and an unduly neglected figure in American literary history Tolson was one of the first African American critics of the Harlem Renaissance This book is an edition of his 1940 MA thesis the first academic study of the Harlem Renaissance written by an African American scholar Tolson's thesis previously unpublished in its entirety provides a unique look at this important era and draws heavily on his familiarity with some of the most important writers of the movement Included are discussions of such major figures as Langston Hughes Claude McKay and W E B Du Bois along with chapters on lesser known authors such as George Schuyler Eric Walrond and Jessie Fauset who are now being rediscovered An introductory essay surveys the history of Harlem Renaissance criticism and Tolson's place in it and evaluates his methodology and use of sources The introduction additionally presents a brief biography and details the creation of his thesis The text of Tolson's thesis appears in its entirety along with his notes and those of the volume editor The book closes with a bibliography of works on Tolson and a large but selective bibliography on the Harlem Renaissance in general

Cape American Studies Association. International Conference,2000 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1995 The Harlem Renaissance Mark Helbling,1999-11-30 During the Harlem Renaissance African American culture flourished The period gave birth to numerous significant and enduring creative works that were at once American and emblematic of the black experience in particular It was a time when African American culture became more distinct from American culture in general though it also continued to be a part of America s larger cultural heritage While the writers artists and intellectuals who contributed to the Harlem Renaissance recognized that they had much in common they also sought to distinguish themselves from one another This book approaches the achievement of the Harlem Renaissance from the perspective of the conflict between individual and group identity According to W E B Du Bois black intellectuals of the period sought to be both Negroes and Americans At the same time the relationship of the individual to the group was no less problematic and served to inspire as well as complicate the imaginations of the principal figures discussed in this book W E B Du Bois Alain Locke Claude McKay Jean Toomer and Zora Neale Hurston As a consequence this study focuses on the tension each of these individuals felt as he or she sought to construct a narrative that mirrored this complex experience as well as the problematics of one s own self identity
