Clement Greenberg Between The Lines Including A Previously Unpublished Debate With Clement Greenberg:

Clement Greenberg Between the Lines Thierry de Duve, Clement Greenberg, 1996 By Thierry de Duve Master Narratives and their Discontents James Elkins, 2013-10-18 In this bracing engagement with the many versions of art history James Elkins argues that the story of modernism and postmodernism is almost always told in terms of four narratives Works of art are either seen as modern or postmodern or praised for their technical skill or because of the politics they appear to embody These are master narratives of contemporary criticism and each leads to a different understanding of what art is and does Both a cogent overview of the state of thinking about art and a challenge to think outside the art historical box Master Narratives and their Discontents is the first volume in a series of short books on the theories of modernism by leading art historians on twentieth century art and art criticism Key Writers on Art: The Twentieth Century Chris Murray, 2005-06-27 Key Writers on Art The Twentieth Century offers a unique and authoritative guide to modern responses to art Featuring 48 essays on the most important twentieth century writers and thinkers and written by an international panel of expert contributors it introduces readers to key approaches and analytical tools used in the study of contemporary art It discusses writers such as Adorno Barthes Benjamin Freud Greenberg Heuser Kristeva Merleau Ponty Pollock Read and Sontag The Baroque in Architectural Culture, 1880-1980 Professor Andrew Leach, Professor Maarten Delbeke, Professor John Macarthur, 2015-09-28 Presenting research by an international community of scholars this book explores through a series of cross sections the traffic of ideas between practice and history that has shaped modern architecture and the academic discipline of architectural history across the long twentieth century The editors use the historiography of the baroque as a lens through which to follow the path of modern ideas that draw authority from history In doing so the volume defines a role for the baroque in the history of architectural historiography and in the history of modern architectural culture No Sense of Place Joshua Meyrowitz, 1986-12-11 Meyrowitz addresses the question of how television has affected our everyday lives by advancing the theory that television and other electronic media create new social situations that no longer depend on where we are or who is with us Television he claims has lifted the veils of secrecy between children and adults men and women and politicians and average citizens resulting in a series of revolutionary changes that have blurred the distinctions of age gender and authority Drawing from the Modern: 1945-1975 Jodi Hauptman, Gary Garrels, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 Published on the occasion of the exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art New York Mar 30 Aug 29 2005 Roman Opalka Christine Savinel, Jacques Roubaud, Bernard Noël, 1996 This monograph investigates Opalka's relationship with numbers time and infinity including an original long term interview of the artist which ran on for more than twenty years In 1965 Roman Opalka started to represent time his own and the world's by painting numbers on canvas Beginning with the number 1 and continuing through 2 3 4 5 and so on he had reached the almost unimaginable figure of 5 million before his death in 2011 Opalka had chosen to come directly to grips with time and death for a lifetime Yet his program though irreducibly singular is not ineffable This volume explores the ethical and aesthetical dimensions of Opalka's project and presents him as one of the major artists of the late twentieth century On Paper ,1997 Art on Paper ,1999
