Cleve Gray:

Cleve Gray Nicholas Fox Weber, Cleve Gray, 1998-10 American artist Cleve Gray has produced a unique body of work over the past half century. The extent and character of his production are revealed in Nicholas Fox Weber's lucid study of the artist's life and accomplishments. Gray's interest in art began in early childhood and was stimulated greatly at Princeton University from which he graduated summa cum laude in 1940. Cleve Gray's career and artistic development paralleled the rise of the Abstract Expressionists and the Color Field painters and mirrored some of their concerns but his journey always remained a personal distinctive and independent effort that never catered to fashion. Artist File Cleve Gray, 1970
