Cleveland's Transit Vehicles Jim Toman, Blaine S. Hays, 1996 The social and political aspects of Cleveland's public transportation history are the subject of this companion volume to Horse Trails to Regional Rails This volume describes and lists both the early vehicles and the modern ones Cleveland and Its Streetcars James R. Spangler, James A. Toman, 2005 Cleveland and Its Streetcars takes the reader back to when railway cars dominated the local street scene The book focuses on the era of 1910-1954 from the time that Cleveland Railway Company took over operation of the consolidated streetcar lines to the day that the last streetcar rumbled over the city's streets Cleveland's trailer trains articulated cars and its Peter Witt car model were widely admired by the nation and the streetcar reigned supreme through the end of World War II In 1942 the Cleveland Transit System CTS took over the streetcar lines and eager to modernize its fleet it decided to replace the streetcars with buses trackless trolleys and a crosstown rapid transit line After the end of the war in May 1945 the first post war conversion took place Then the pace of replacing the streetcars with rubber tired vehicles quickened By 1954 the task was complete This book with over 200 photographs documents this changing Cleveland scene when a wonderful era in transportation flourished and then sadly disappeared Railroad History, 1997 Transit National Research Council (U.S.).
