Creating an Online Community of Action Researchers Josef Huber (Educator),Branko Bogнар,Pascale Mompoin-Gaillard,2017 The Council of Europe s Pestalozzi Programme promotes the message of the Organisation and its values human rights democracy and the rule of law in the practice of education formal non formal and informal and aims to support member states in including these ideals in their education systems Basing its approach to professional development firmly on social constructivism and social constructionism it invests in educators who create new practices This book represents an example of a transformational enterprise in which several practitioners from different parts of Europe gather in the Pestalozzi Programme community of practice and set out to learn how to become action researchers While many books focus on how to carry this out this publication is action research in action In addition it features examples of how participants can use online social platforms and affordable web applications in their collaboration and learning practices Library Issues ,2007 Choice ,2008 Streampunks Robert Kyncl,Maany Peyvan,2017-09-05 An entertainment and tech insider YouTube s chief business officer delivers the first detailed account of the rise of YouTube the creative minds who have capitalized on it to become pop culture stars and how streaming video is revolutionizing the media world In the past ten years the internet video platform YouTube has changed media and entertainment as profoundly as the invention of film radio and television did more than six decades earlier Streampunks is a firsthand account of this upstart company examining how it evolved and where it will take us next Sharing behind the scenes stories of YouTube s most influential stars Streampunks like Tyler Oakley Lilly Singh and Casey Neistat and the dealmakers brokering the future of entertainment like Scooter Braun and Shane Smith Robert Kyncl uses his experiences at three of the most innovative media companies HBO Netflix and YouTube to tell the story of streaming video and this modern pop culture juggernaut Collaborating with Google speechwriter Maany Peyvan Kyncl explains how the new rules of entertainment are being written and how and why the media landscape is radically changing while giving aspiring Streampunks some necessary advice to launch their own new media careers Kyncl persuasively argues that despite concerns about technology impoverishing artists or undermining artistic quality the new media revolution is actually fueling a creative boom and leading to more compelling diverse and immersive content Enlightening surprising and thoroughly entertaining Streampunks is a revelatory ride through the new media rebellion that is reshaping our world International Directory of Company Histories Tina Grant,2007-11 This directory is intended for reference use by students business people librarians historians economists investors job candidates and others who seek to learn more about the historical development of the world s most important companies Gardening Illustrated ,1897

Living Room Nancy Welch, 2008 How can our students find or make spaces where their ideas and arguments can be heard Living Room takes up this question in an age defined not only by YouTube and My Space but also the conversion of public streets to festival marketplaces the creation of cordoned off and tucked away free speech zones and the state sanctioning of ethnic profiling In Living Room Nancy Welch traces the erosion of publicity rights to post 9 11 legislation and more troublingly to nearly thirty years of neoliberal privatization of space institutions and resources even the very idea of who has the authority to speak and argue especially in the political and public arenas Joining the field s reinvigorated interest in public writing and rhetorical history Welch argues that if we re to explore with our students when where and how they can deliver arguments that matter we need to look to the lessons of earlier generations Especially in the 20th century s struggles for labor and civil rights the struggles that won living room rights for ordinary people in the first place we find consequential and sometimes unruly arguments workers shutting down production lines and cash registers students disrupting segregated lunch counters AIDS HIV activists dying in across a Wall Street intersection By examining these and other vibrant models of rhetorical action in our classrooms we can help our students better understand how to deliver effective arguments in the most restrictive of circumstances and how to most effectively shape their arguments using genre collaboration audience tone and style Living Room vigorously critiques our privatized era of shopping malls and Clear Channel of state sanctioned ethnic profiling and militarized responses to public protest of private economic interests colluding to shape public policy on everything from energy and interest rates to health care and access to the airwaves Read Living Room and heed Nancy Welch s call for a reinvigorated rhetoric that connects your composition classroom with a contentious lively history of writing as social action
