dive into the importance of daily communication and how we can harness its power to create a better life We spend much of our waking lives communicating with others How does each moment of interaction shape not only our relationships but also our worldviews And how can we create moments of connection that improve our health and well being particularly in a world in which people are feeling increasingly isolated Drawing from their extensive research Andy J Merolla and Jeffrey A Hall establish a new way to think about our relational life as existing within social biomes complex ecosystems of moments of interaction with others Each interaction we have no matter how unimportant or mundane it might seem is a building block of our identities and beliefs Consequently the choices we make about how we interact and who we interact with and whether we interact at all matter more than we might know Merolla and Hall offer a sympathetic practical guide to our vital yet complicated social lives and propose realistic ways to embrace and enhance connection and hope The Standard
