Copyright and Anonymity in the Creative User-Generated World Rachel Maguire, 2025-05-01 This book explores the relationship between copyright law online anonymity and creative user generated content CUGC Presenting original empirical findings the book evaluates the co existence of copyright law and normative systems regulating a CUGC landscape made up of artists photographers and writers and makes novel recommendations for copyright reform It takes a multi jurisdictional approach across Anglo American and EU legal systems using the UK USA and Germany as representative jurisdictions for legal analysis Qualitative findings are drawn from creators and communities on Reddit and 4chan Copyright subsists in much CUGC but pervasive anonymity makes it difficult for the law to regulate it effectively Simultaneously anonymity offers creative benefits in a way that highlights flaws in traditional justifications of copyright Comparisons between community norms and copyright law identify practical differences but also fundamental compatibilities in terms of ownership expectations However the simultaneous existence of legal and normative enforcement mechanisms complicates matters for creators and potential users with negative implications for creativity and copyright law While existing reform efforts have made suggestions to create a UGC exception these overlook and undermine the role of CUGC creators as copyright holders This can be addressed through the consideration of a framework of supplementary CUGC guidelines when developing such reforms This valuable resource for researchers and students provides a distinct perspective in framing CUGC creators as copyright holders examining online anonymity as a pivotal factor influencing regulation

US Media and Diversity Travis L. Dixon, Dana Mastro, 2024-06-21 This volume fully illuminates the role of diversity in media representation dissemination and effects across various platforms including social media Against a backdrop of shifting demographics and increasing diversity the book highlights the implications for media consumption patterns and explores the simultaneous rise in online hate Organized into three thematic sections the book first centers people of color in the discussion of media stereotypes and identity considering the impact of technology on such identities This volume then moves to analyze the news media and how stereotypes are presented and perpetuated before focusing on paradigm shifts brought on by critical media effects and counter stereotyping research The empirical studies and theoretical analyses push readers to imagine better how Communication scholars can advance this essential work at a precarious time in history Budding and senior scholars interested in understanding stereotypical media representations and effects will gain insights from this critical and timely book and it will interest those working in the areas of media and communication media representation social justice diversity and inclusion media sociology social media and journalism
