Converging Interests Traders Travelers And Tourists In Southeast:

Converging Interests Jill Forshee, Christina Fink, Sandra Cate, 1999      Intersections of Tourism, Migration, and Exile Natalia Bloch, Kathleen M. Adams, 2022-12-30 This book challenges the classic and often tacit compartmentalization of tourism migration and refugee studies by exploring the intersections of these forms of spatial mobility each prompts distinctive images and moral reactions yet they often intertwine overlap and influence one another Tourism migration and exile evoke widely varying policies diverse popular reactions and contrasting imagery What are the ramifications of these siloed conceptions for people on the move To what extent do gender class ethnic and racial global inequalities shape moral discourses surrounding people's movements This book presents 12 predominantly ethnographic case studies from around the world and a pandemic focused conclusion that address these issues In recounting and juxtaposing stories of refugees and migrants returns marriage migrants voluntourists migrant retirees migrant tourism workers and entrepreneurs mobile investors and professionals and refugees pursuing educational mobility this book cultivates more nuanced insights into intersecting forms of mobility Ultimately this work promises to foster not only empathy but also greater resolve for forging trails toward mobility justice This accessibly written volume will be essential to scholars and students in critical migration tourism and refugee studies including anthropologists sociologists human geographers and researchers in political science and cultural studies The book will also be of interest to non academic professionals and general readers interested in contemporary mobilities      Tourism Development Peter M. Burns, Marina Novelli, 2008 Making an empirical contribution to the understanding of tourism as a development mechanism in poor regions and countries this book looks at the successes and paradoxes of tourism in this role and considers why tourism as a catalyst for economic development can be a controversial device It offers a perspective on theoretical frameworks and uses international case studies covering both social and economic aspects The book is relevant to both tourism practitioners and academics It consists of 16 chapters in addition to an introduction and has a subject index      Being a Tourist Julia Diane Harrison, 2003 What feeds the impulse to explore new horizons What makes travel meaningful In Being a Tourist Julia Harrison explores the motivations of a large group of middle class travelers to find out why people invest their financial emotional psychological and physical resources in this activity She suggests that they are fueled by several desires to find intimacy and connection to express a personal aesthetic to explore the idea of home and to make sense of a globalized world Engagingly and thoughtfully written for readers of travel writing tourism studies anthropology cultural studies and sociology Being a Tourist goes beyond current debates about authenticity and consumption to analyze the nuanced moral and political complexity of privileged travel      Tourism and Memories of Home Sabine Marschall, 2017-02-03 This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies

Everyday Life in Southeast Asia Kathleen M. Adams, Kathleen Gillogly, 2011-07-18 This lively survey of the peoples cultures and societies of Southeast Asia introduces a region of tremendous geographic linguistic historical and religious diversity Encompassing both mainland and island countries these engaging essays describe personhood and identity family and household organization nation states religion popular culture and the arts the legacies of war and recovery globalization and the environment Throughout the focus is on the daily lives and experiences of ordinary people Most of the essays are original to this volume while a few are widely taught classics All were chosen for their timeliness and interest and are ideally suited for the classroom

Between the Folds Jill Forshee, 2001-01-01 Textiles have long been integral to the social life and cosmology of the people of East Sumba Indonesia In recent decades the people of East Sumba have entered a larger world economy as their textiles have joined the commodity flow of an international ethnic arts market stimulated by Indonesia's tourist trade As Sumba's villagers respond to an immensely expanded commerce in their cloth tensions and ironies emerge between historical and innovative forms in both cloth and lives Such responses involve gender ethnicity and social rank and are especially highlighted within global market spaces The stories in Between the Folds vary widely and include those of animists Christians and Moslems Sumbanese Indonesian Chinese and Westerners inventive geniuses master artisans and exploited weavers rogues entrepreneurs nobles and servants
