Conversation With Canadians:

My Conversations with Canadians Lee Maracle,2017 Finalist for the 2018 Toronto Book Award My Conversations With Canadians is the book that Canada 150 needs On her first book tour at the age of 26 Lee Maracle was asked a question from the audience one she couldn't possibly answer at that moment But she has been thinking about it ever since As time has passed she has been asked countless similar questions all of them too big to answer but not too large to contemplate These questions which touch upon subjects such as citizenship segregation labour law prejudice and reconciliation to name a few are the heart of My Conversations with Canadians In prose essays that are both conversational and direct Maracle seeks not to provide any answers to these questions she has lived with for so long Rather she thinks through each one using a multitude of experiences she shad as a First Nations leader a woman a mother and grandmother over the course of her life Lee Maracle's My Conversations with Canadians presents a tour de force exploration into the writer's own history and a reimagining of the future of our nation Praise for My Conversations with Canadians My Conversations With Canadians offer's strength and solidarity to Indigenous readers and a generous guide to ally ship for non Indigenous readers For the latter these books will unsettle but to engage in ally ship is to commit to being unsettled all the time The Globe and Mail
