Conversations With Eunice:

Conversations with Eunice Dennis Gimmel, 2001-05-01 Dennis Gimmel's second book Conversations with Eunice is a delightful account of a woman's childhood in Savannah and Atlanta through fifty-four years operating her own business

Rainbows & Fireworks Susan Beth Pfeffer, 2015-01-06 What if the one person you can't stand is the only one you can depend on? Nobody ever asked Betsy Reisman if she wanted to be a twin, but since she and Meg are stuck with each other, they've reached a truce. Mostly they keep busy: Betsy with her beloved piano and her plans to go to Juilliard, and Meg with learning her fifth or is it sixth language. It's about to get harder though, since their parents, both writers, have decided to take the year off from New York City's high rents and live in a country cottage on the estate of a much wealthier family. The owner is a friend of Betsy's mom, and the whole family is sort of local nobility, or at least that's how everyone treats them. Eunice, the oldest daughter, is not at all happy about the Reismans' arrival. This is just fine with Betsy, who only likes people who like music. But Meg goes for successful and popular, and Betsy knows that Meg will be heartbroken if Eunice snubs her, and the rest of the school follows suit. Worse, their parents haven't stopped fighting since they got there. The sisters decide that to make the year as tolerable as possible, they're going to have to stick together and at least try to get along. Kind of like friends, or maybe even like sisters.

The Missing Kennedy Elizabeth Koehler Pentacoff, 2015-10-01 Rosemary Rosie Kennedy was born in 1918, the first daughter of a wealthy Bostonian couple who later would become known as the patriarch and matriarch of America's most famous and celebrated family. Elizabeth Liz Koehler was born in 1957, the first and only child of a struggling Wisconsin farm family. What, besides their religion, did these two very different Catholic women have in common? One person really: Stella Koehler, a charismatic woman of the cloth who became Sister Paulus Koehler after taking her vows with the Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis of Assisi. Sister Paulus was Liz's Wisconsin aunt. For thirty-five years, indeed, much of her adult life, Sister Paulus was Rosie Kennedy's caregiver. And a caregiver tragically had become necessary after Rosie, a slow learner prone to emotional outbursts, underwent one of America's first lobotomies, an operation Joseph Kennedy was assured would normalize Rosie's life. It did not. Rosie's condition became decidedly worse. After the procedure, Joe and Rose Kennedy sent Rosie to rural Wisconsin and Saint Coletta, a Catholic-run home for the mentally disabled. For the next two decades, she never saw her siblings, her parents, or any other relative, the doctors having issued stern instructions that even the occasional family visit would be emotionally disruptive to Rosie. Following Joseph Kennedy's stroke in 1961, the Kennedy family, led by mother Rose and sister Eunice Kennedy Shriver, resumed face-to-face contact with Rosie. It was also about then that a young Liz Koehler began paying visits to Rosie. In this insightful, poignant, and important memoir, based in part on Sister Paulus's private notes and augmented by dozens of never-before-seen photos, Liz Koehler Pentacoff recalls the many happy and memorable times spent with the missing Kennedy. Based on independent research and interviews with the Shriver family, she tries to come to grips with Joseph Kennedy's well-intended decision to submit her eldest daughter to a still experimental medical procedure and his later decision to keep Rosie almost entirely out of public view She looks at the many parallels between Rosie s post operative life her own and those of the two families And most important she traces how entirely because of Rosie the Kennedy and Shriver families embarked on an exceedingly consequential campaign advancing the cause of the developmentally disabled a campaign that continues to this day Ten years after Rosie s death comes the first full length book about Rosie Kennedy a fitting testimonial to a sad but truly meaningful and important life Romance, illustrated, a complete weekly novelette, 1903 Dumbbell People in a Barbell World Daniel Blue, 1961 And the Shofar Blew Francine Rivers, 2004 Committed to building his new church dynamic young preacher Paul Hudson loses sight of the purer intentions of his ministry and struggles to choose between his own will and God s plan Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division, New York Supplement, 1922 Includes decisions of the Supreme Court and various intermediate and lower courts of record May Aug 1888 Sept Dec 1895 Superior Court of New York City Mar Apr 1926 Dec 1937 Jan 1938 Court of Appeals Paul Winslow James Logan Mosby, 1916 The Leisure Hour, 1894 Confirmation Barna William Donovan, 2018-07-16 THE EVIDENCE OF ANOTHER WORLD IS HERE In Mount Shasta City California In New Jersey In San Diego Then in Scotland in Italy and Cairo In dozens of locations around the world 20 ton granite globes suddenly appear They usually turn up overnight sometimes in remote locations and other times in the middle of cities in places no one could have put them without detection For the first time the world is witnessing a truly unexplainable phenomenon AND THE THREAT IS REAL As Rick Ballantine and Cornelia Oxenburg cast members of the low rent supernatural reality show Confirmation Investigations of the Unexplained quickly realize the globes greatest effect is the way they make people speculate about their origins and purpose Some think the globes are placed by aliens Others think it s all a hoax Many more fear sinister government conspiracies behind it all But each of these points of view believes they re absolutely right and others who disagree are dead wrong and dangerous and must be dealt with by any means necessary Before the true incredible origin of the globes is finally revealed the Confirmation cast comes to see the extremes people are capable of when their beliefs are challenged and threatened even in their own group The New York Supplement, 1901 In the Supreme Court of the State of New York, 1913 Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1878 Proceedings of the High School Conference University of Illinois.
