The Golden Age Cook Book Henrietta Latham Dwight, 1898 I send this little book out into the world first to aid those who having decided to adopt a bloodless diet are still asking how they can be nourished without flesh second in the hope of gaining something further to protect the speechless ones who having come down through the centuries under the dominion of man have in their eyes the mute appealing look of the helpless and oppressed Their eloquent silence should not ask our sympathy and aid in vain they have a right as our humble brothers to our loving care and protection and to demand justice and pity at our hands and as a part of the One Life to life which all can take but none can give Life which all creatures love and strive to keep Wonderful dear and pleasant unto each Even to the meanest yea a boon to all Where pity is for pity makes the world Soft to the weak and noble for the strong Unto the dumb lips of the flock he lent Sad pleading words showing how man who prays For mercy to the gods is merciless Being as god to those albeit all life Is linked and kin and what we slay have given Meek tribute of their milk and wool and set Fast trust upon the hands which murder them We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
