Digital-Native News and the Remaking of Latin American Mainstream and Alternative Journalism Summer Harlow, 2022-10-06 Winner of the Frank Luther Mott Kappa Tau Alpha Research Award Digital Native News and the Remaking of Latin American Mainstream and Alternative Journalism explores the rise of independent digital native news outlets in Latin America and their role in social change, protest participation, and the refinement of the concept of alternative media. Drawing upon a decade of original research including interviews, surveys, focus groups, and content analyses, this book questions how the emergence of online native news sites in Latin America is redefining our understanding of what it means to be mainstream and what it means to be alternative. By analyzing a wide range of elements from business models and audience behaviors to social media use and the role of gender, this text examines how these sites are challenging traditional hegemonic mainstream news media and its service to political and economic elites. The result is a discerning investigation into the new brand of journalism these sites have innovated. This insightful study will be of interest to journalism communication and Latin American scholars, particularly those interested in how technology is moulding journalistic practices and changing conceptions of journalism itself

Pitch, Tweet, or Engage on the Street Kara Alaimo, 2020-12-29 The second edition of Pitch, Tweet, or Engage on the Street offers a modern guide for how to adapt public relations strategies, messages, and tactics for countries and cultures around the globe. Drawing on interviews with public relations professionals in over 30 countries as well as the author's own experience, the book explains how to build and manage a global public relations team, how to handle global crisis communication, and how to practice global public relations on behalf of corporations, non-profit organizations, and governments. It takes readers on a tour of the world, explaining how to adapt their campaigns for Asia Pacific, Europe, the Middle East, the Americas, and Sub-Saharan Africa. Along the way, readers are introduced to practitioners around the globe and case studies of particularly successful campaigns. This new edition includes updates to country profiles to reflect changes in each local context, as well as expanded coverage of social media and the role of influencer engagement, and a brand new chapter on global crisis communication. The book is ideal for graduate and upper-level undergraduate public relations
