Conversations With Nadine Gordimer:

Conversations with Nadine Gordimer Nadine Gordimer, 1990 Talks with the prize winning author of Beethoven was One Sixteenth Black and Other Stories July's People The Pickup and many other books Black/White Writing Pauline Fletcher, 1993 The volume closes with an essay by Gerald Monaghan that takes the reader back to an earlier South Africa examining Olive Schreiner's writing in the broader context of other stories from an imperialist past Two poems by Dennis Brutus open the volume They speak eloquently of human suffering and the desire for peace Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Apartheid and Beyond Rita Barnard, 2006-11-16 Apartheid and Beyond offers trenchant historically sensitive readings of writings by Coetzee Gordimer Fugard Tlali Dike Magona and Mda focusing on the intimate relationship between place subjectivity and literary form It also explores the way apartheid functioned in its day to day operations as a geographical system of control exerting its power through such spatial mechanisms as residential segregation bantustans passes and prisons Throughout the study Rita Barnard provides historical context by highlighting key events such as colonial occupation the creation of black townships migration forced removals the emergence of informal settlements and the gradual integration of white cities Apartheid and Beyond is both an innovative account of an important body of politically inflected literature and an imaginative reflection on the socio spatial aspects of the transition from apartheid to democracy At Home in the World Maria DiBattista, Deborah Epstein Nord, 2019-06-18 In a bold and sweeping reevaluation of the past two centuries of women's writing At Home in the World argues that this body of work has been defined less by domestic concerns than by an active engagement with the most pressing issues of public life from class and religious divisions slavery warfare and labor unrest to democracy tyranny globalism and the clash of cultures In this new literary history Maria DiBattista and Deborah Epstein Nord contend that even the most seemingly traditional works by British American and other English language women writers redefine the domestic sphere in ways that incorporate the concerns of public life allowing characters and authors alike to forge new emancipatory narratives The book explores works by a wide range of writers including canonical figures such as Jane Austen Charlotte Brontë George Eliot Harriet Jacobs Edith Wharton Virginia Woolf Willa Cather Gertrude Stein and Toni Morrison neglected or marginalized writers like Mary Antin Tess Slesinger and Martha Gellhorn and recent and contemporary figures including Nadine Gordimer Anita Desai Edwidge Danticat and Jhumpa Lahiri DiBattista and Nord show how these writers dramatize tensions between home and the wider world through recurrent themes of sailing forth escape exploration dissent and emigration Throughout the book uncovers the undervalued public concerns of women writers who ventured into ever wider geographical cultural and political territories forging new definitions of what it means to create a home in the world The result is an enlightening reinterpretation of women s writing from the early nineteenth century to the present day     Susan Sontag Leland Poague,Kathy A. Parsons,2003-09-02 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America s most prolific and important 20th century authors Known for her philosophical writings on American culture topics left untouched by Sontag s writings are few and far between This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels essays reviews films and interviews Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography     A Morbid Fascination Richard Peck,1997-02-19 Using a broad range of literature to examine the political culture of white South Africa Peck finds both a preoccupation with political issues and a dislike for politics The literature examined ranges from South African propaganda through a variety of bestsellers adventure stories and mystery novels written by authors such as Wilbur Smith and James McClure to self conscious literary works of the canonical white South African authors such as Alan Paton Andr Brink and Nadine Gordimer The study gives attention to anti political features of the liberal tradition that dominated South African writing and to the failure of writers who undermined that tradition to generate a more positive view of politics The morbid fascination with politics that is found across the full spectrum of creative writing is a reflection of the circumstances in which writers found themselves but it is still a worrisome feature of the white South African political culture     The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch,Kevin J.
