MIGRATION STUDIES The politics and governance of Jordan s Azraq camp for Syrian refugees Azraq refugee camp built in 2014 and host to forty thousand refugees is one of two official humanitarian refugee camps for Syrian refugees in Jordan Time and Power in Azraq Refugee Camp investigates the relationship between time and power in Azraq asking how a politics of time shapes limits or enables everyday life for the displaced and for aid workers Based on ethnographic fieldwork carried out during 2017 2018 the book challenges the perceptions of Azraq as the ideal refugee camp Melissa Gatter argues that the camp operates as a nine to five emergency where mundane bureaucratic procedures serve to sustain a power system in which refugees are socialized to endure a cynical wait both for everyday services and for their return without expectations for a better outcome Time and Power in Azraq Refugee Camp also explores how refugees navigate this system both in the day to day and over years by evaluating various layers of waiting as they affect refugee perceptions of time in the camp not only in the present but the past near future and far future Far from an ideal camp Azraq and its politics of time constitute a cruel reality in which a power system meant to aid refugees is one that suppresses foreclosing futures that it is supposed to preserve Discover the Wealth Within You Ric Edelman,2010-07-13 Achieve a Healthy Balanced and Richly Rewarding Life
