It provides future chefs with the prerequisites to cultivate a professional viewpoint of plating by considering the different ways a chef looks at food. Its goal is to provide a map of how a chef creates a plate of food by considering such questions as: Where in the menu is this food item to be placed? What food is selected? How is the food prepared? How will it be served? How is it presented in relationship to other food on the plate? How much will it cost? Plating exposes a chef's deepest beliefs about what food is and how food should be structured as a design process. Cooking to the Image: A Plating Handbook outlines how personal creativity and professional traditions fuse to create successful plated presentations of food. The project approach is designed to enable early educators to ensure young children are learning in the best possible way by providing motivating learning opportunities. Put the project approach into practice using the included resources with adaptable and printable planning and observation forms. Link the approach to the requirements of all four British early years curricula. Develop children's personal and social skills by encouraging collaboration with others. Provide a meaningful context for children to practice their literacy and numeracy skills. Promote sustained shared thinking by facilitating projects that involve children in active investigation, discussion, and debate. Give each child the freedom to learn according to their individual needs, interests, aptitudes, and abilities. Cambodia Trevor Ranges, 2010 Travel Holiday
