Psychology and the Internet Jayne Gackenbach,1998 Psychology and the Internet provides the first resource for examining how the Internet affects our definition of who we are and our communication and work patterns It also examines how normal behavior differs from the pathological with respect to Internet use The book contains three sections the first section covers the self in relation to the Internet the second section explores how the Internet is used to meet new friends and love interests as well as to conduct business and the final section examines the philosophical ramifications of Internet use and our definitions of reality and consciousness AI-Powered Recruitment and the Attitudes of German University Graduates Tobias Opifanti,2020-08-27 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Recruiting grade 1 2 European School of Business Reutlingen language English abstract The purpose of this thesis is to investigate German graduate students attitudes towards AI powered recruitment Toward this end data were collected through a questionnaire that was e mailed to German university graduate students Businesses are becoming increasingly reliant on technology as globalization progresses New skills and knowledge are vital for organizations to be competitive making Human Resource Management HRM more important now than ever The application of advanced technology like Artificial Intelligence AI has gained significant attention in the recruitment process in recent years AI offers promising solutions for recruiters to increase cost and efficiency by taking over repetitive tasks such as screening CVs and conducting job interviews However little is known so far about how these solutions affect potential applicants attitudes particularly the attitudes of graduate students from German universities and whether they are willing to accept and make use of the new opportunities offered by AI The online questionnaire gathered data from a total of 456 different respondents However 50 respondents dropped out before completion and a further 36 respondents were not in line with the inclusion criteria These respondents needed to be excluded from the sample which resulted in a final sample size of n 370 individuals
