A Slow Approach to Visual Literacy in Higher Education

Dana Statton Thompson, Stephanie Beene, 2025-04-10. The principles of slow librarianship, which prioritizes reflection, collaboration, solidarity, and valuing all kinds of contributions, can also support deeper and more sustained learning and understanding. This book emphasizes the importance of attention and focus to the process of visual literacy, demonstrating how this approach supports ACRL's Visual Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education and the Framework for Visual Literacy in Higher Education. Library workers, educators, and instructors will discover dozens of flexible lesson plans for teaching visual literacy, scaffolded by competency levels: novice, intermediate, and advanced. Ways to integrate slow looking into the classroom, emphasizing careful observation and the sustained act of looking, techniques for showing learners how to select images with intention, as well as carefully determine when and how to share those images, reasons why slow creating is essential to understanding, and applying visual literacy in the twenty-first century, and a look at how increasing access to internet connectivity, generative artificial intelligence (AI), and new ethics for sharing and using information online will affect the future of visual literacy.

Creative Convergence James Hutson, Jason Lively, Bryan Robertson, Peter Cotroneo, Martin Lang, 2023-11-14. Embark on a journey that transcends the boundaries of art and technology in the groundbreaking realm of Creative Convergence: The AI Renaissance in Art and Design. This isn't just another book on art and technology; it's a journey that sparks curiosity, fuels innovation, and challenges traditional artistic boundaries. Discover the power of generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) as it melds with human expression, propelling artistry into uncharted territories and redefining traditional notions of both originality and creativity. The text is not just about art or AI; it is about the fusion of both, catalyzing a creative revolution that challenges previous assumptions about human-machine collaboration and how ideation, conceptualization, process, and execution are radically rethought. Have you ever wondered how will AI revolutionize training, education, and execution in art and design? Delve into this captivating treatment that contextualizes the disruptions we are experiencing today in the technological innovations and artistic responses and integrations of the past five hundred years.
