Spatializing Social

Media Marco Bastos, 2021-08-19 Spatializing Social Media charts the theoretical and methodological challenges in analyzing and visualizing social media data mapped to geographic areas. It introduces the reader to concepts, theories, and methods that sit at the crossroads between spatial and social network analysis to unpack the conceptual differences between online and face-to-face social networks and the nonlinear effects triggered by social activity that overlaps online and offline. The book is divided into four sections with the first accounting for the differences between space, the geometrical arrangements that structure and enable forms of interaction, and place, the mechanisms through which social meanings are attached to physical locations. The second section covers the rationale of social network analysis and the ontological differences, stating that relationships more than individual and independent attributes are key to understanding of social behavior. The third section covers a range of case studies that successfully mapped social media activity to geographically situated areas and considers the inflection of homophilous dependencies across online and offline social networks. The fourth and last section of the book explores a range of networks and discusses methods for and approaches to plotting a social network graph onto a map, including the purpose-built R package Spatial Social Media. The book takes a non-mathematical approach to social networks and spatial statistics, suitable for postgraduate students in sociology, psychology, and the social sciences. Film Curatorship Paolo Cherchi Usai, David Francis, Alexander Horwath, Michael Loebenstein, 2008

What are the major issues and challenges film archives, cinémathèques, and film museums are bound to face in the digital age and at a time when there is an expectation of access on demand? What is curatorship and what does it imply in the context of film preservation and presentation? Is there a concept of the film artifact that transcends the idea of film as content or art in the information age? Film Curatorship is an experiment, a collective text, a montage of dialogues, conversations, and exchanges among four professionals representing three generations of film archivists and curators. It calls for an open philosophical and ethical debate on fundamental questions the profession must come to terms with in the twenty-first century. This book is jointly published with Le Giornate del Cinema muto Pordenone, Italy. Documentary, 2007 Sight and Sound, 2007
