Consolation Miracle:

Consolation Miracle Chad Davidson, 2003-10-09 Consolation Miracle is a book of visceral image driven poems that search for the miraculous in the seemingly ordinary This collection fashions art out of artless objects as a consolation or perhaps compensation for their smallness Yawns and pears cockroaches and crows resonate against historically conflated backdrops while our own hands seem suddenly strange as they hide themselves in our pockets balance a burning cigarette between two fingers or grip the gun that shot Lincoln Other poems address the destruction of empire the end of old Hollywood and the hyperbolic fizzling out of entire centuries Here consolation miracles are rarely the ones sought after yet they radiate in their neglect Davidson's poems help us understand the inner life of cows imagine the plight of a banished Kama Sutra illustrator speculate about Cleopatra's lingerie With a title borrowed from Gabriel Garc a M rquez Consolation Miracle contains a magical realism for the twenty first century

The Reformation of Suffering Ronald K. Rittgers, 2012-04-30 Protestant reformers sought to effect a radical change in the way their contemporaries understood and coped with the suffering of body and soul that were so prominent in the early modern period The reformers did so because they believed that many traditional approaches to suffering were not sufficiently Christian that is they thought these approaches were unbiblical The Reformation of Suffering examines the Protestant reformation of suffering and shows how it was a central part of the larger Protestant effort to reform church and society Despite its importance no other text has directly examined this reformation of suffering This book investigates the history of Christian reflection on suffering and consolation in the Latin West and places the Protestant reformation campaign within this larger context paying close attention to important continuities and discontinuities between Catholic and Protestant traditions Focusing especially on Wittenberg Christianity The Reformation of Suffering examines the genesis of Protestant doctrines of suffering among the leading reformers and then traces the transmission of these doctrines from the reformers to the common clergy It also examines the reception of these ideas by lay people The text underscores the importance of consolation in early modern Protestantism and seeks to challenge a scholarly trend that has emphasized the themes of discipline and control in Wittenberg Christianity It shows how Protestant clergymen and burghers could be remarkably creative and resourceful as they sought to convey solace to one another in the midst of suffering and misfortune The Protestant reformation of suffering had a profound impact on church and society in the early modern period and contributed significantly to the shape of the modern world

Memory and Peace Francis Anekwe Oborji, 2020-11-11 The Latin adage Si vis pacem para bellum if you want peace prepare for war is usually interpreted as peace through strength It expresses the idea that being armed and ready to fight in order to defend oneself is a viable way of keeping the peace However the truism of the adage is expressed by the author who argues for peace and sustainable development of Africa at large in the light of the Nigerian Biafra struggle He intellectually equips readers with memories of the past lest the mistakes of history be repeated The author uses the power of the pen as a weapon mightier than the sword to discuss the structures of peace in the African context He weighs in a balance the need for restructuring and the right for self determination the way to freedom and collective effort towards development This volume contains articles that propose potential and functional solutions to the perennial challenges presently facing Nigeria as a country Interestingly the reflections recommend steps towards cordial reconciliation and the liberating spirit that would catalyze the restoration of an emerging nation the Republic of Biafra The volume further expands the ongoing ideas and thoughts on a variety of issues that offer roadmaps to the contextual problems of the indigenous people as well as the Christian Mission and evangelical witness Furthermore the author goes on to demonstrate that when dialogue is employed peace makes its way in the hearts of the citizens which ushers in the flourishing of good governance and economic growth Hence justice equity peace equal rights and opportunity become the bedrock upon which every nation state is supposed to be founded The Consolations of the Christian Seasons George Edward Jelf,1880 Mercia Michelle P. Brown,Carol A. Farr,2005-03-01 The kingdom best remembered for Offa and his famous dyke was not only a dominant power on the island of Britain in the eighth century but also a significant player in early medieval European politics and culture Although the volume focuses on the eighth and ninth centuries when Mercian power was at its height it also looks back to the origins of the kingdom and forward to the period of Viking settlement and West Saxon reconquest With state of the art contributions from experts in palaeography art history archaeology numismatics and landscape as well as from historians this book establishes a new baseline for Mercian scholarship by covering the rise and fall of the kingdom its major institutions relations with other political entities as well as its visual and material culture Spiritual Messages of the Miracle Stories George Henry Hubbard,1922 Lacemakers Claire McQuerry,2012-01-19 In Lacemakers Claire McQuerry investigates the timeless questions of relationships of loss and longing and of environment both natural and manmade This informal yet haunting collection juxtaposes a myriad of perspectives public and personal interior and exterior sacred and secular to explore the fathomless mysteries that abound between one human and another From the metallic hum of the air conditioner to the thrumming of quail wings in the Arizona desert from the necklace of brake lights on the freeway to the more dangerous and intimate highways of the human heart McQuerry explores the impact of our environments both urban and natural on humankind Spirituality clashes with modernity in the holiest of places and we are relentlessly confronted with the irreconcilable otherness of our fellow man Above all Lacemakers returns obsessively to separations offering searing insight into our inability to truly know another person meditating on the subtle abysses that eternally divide us from others Joy Ashley Kunze,2018-11-21 We all naturally desire a life that feels light full and happy But how do you get that happy feeling to stick Maybe you try blocking out the negative feelings or rushing through unhappiness to feel better as soon as possible Maybe you try telling yourself that you are already happy or you pretend to be Maybe you discredit your desire for a full life and tell yourself that happiness is impossible Your heart was made for joy happiness that sticks Perhaps trying to feel happy is actually standing in your way of true joy Maybe negative emotions do not mean that you are further from joy but closer to it Maybe it is OK to experience the painful feelings and walk through them If that elusive happiness is on this side of the journey then perhaps joy real deep joy is on the other side It is God s work to lead you through the journey to joy Your only job is to follow This daily devotional includes 50 Bible passages and reflections that discuss joy as well as four short stories from my journey May these pages give you space to notice yourself as you begin the journey to experiencing true joy Nostalgia for a World Where We Can Live Monica Berlin,2018-10-11 Monica Berlin s Nostalgia for a World Where We Can Live resides at the turbulent confluence of relentless news cycles and the repeated rending of our interior lives In Berlin s poetry sorrow makes its own landscape solitary intimate forward looking Whether we attempt to traverse it or choose bypass her poems show us where we live how we carry on These poems notice the day in the wind the night tucked up to the train tracks and a slipping in of yesterday memory laden alongside the promise of a more hopeful tomorrow Here is the Midwest vibrant and relic in the ongoing years of collapse and recovery Here the constant companionship of weather lays claim to its own field of vision Here too devastation what s left after Berlin reminds us we are at the mercy of rivers oceans earth wind rain blizzard drought and each other Maybe what I mean to say is that I ve come to see all the names we might recognize destruction by Berlin s speaker discovers We might sometimes stupidly call it love On her familiar prairie of lyricism and tumult beauty and ruin Berlin s poems insist plead and seek to reassure In a collection both mournful and urgent both a little book of days and a song this poet meditates on loss wonder and always the consolations of language One Hundred and Ten Miracles of Our Lady Mary Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge,1923 Arthurian Sources: Studies in Dark-Age history ,1995 The Saddle and Show Horse Chronicle ,1922 Christian Consolations Andrew Preston Peabody,1881 Arthurian Sources: Studies in Dark-Age history John Morris,1995 Christ and the Christian Faith John Cairns,1904 The Miracles of Unbelief Frank Ballard,1901 A Dictionary of Miracles Ebenezer Cobham Brewer,1889 The Gospel according to st.
