Conspicuous Compasion Why Sometimes It Really Is Cruel To Be Kind:

Conspicuous Compassion Patrick West,2004 Argues that public displays of empathy such as the wearing of ribbons is more about projecting one s ego and not really about doing good Conspicuous Compassion Patrick West,2004 We live in an age of conspicuous compassion We sport empathy ribbons send flowers to recently deceased celebrities weep in public over murdered children apologize for historical misdemeanors wear red noses for the starving go on demonstrations to proclaim Drop the Debt or Not in My Name We feel each other s pain We desperately seek a common identity and new social bonds to replace those that have withered in the post war era the family the church the nation and neighborhood Mourning sickness is a religion for the lonely crowd that no longer subscribes to orthodox churches Its flowers and teddies are its rites its collective minutes silences its liturgy and mass This book s thesis is that such displays of empathy do not change the world for the better they do not help the poor diseased dispossessed or bereaved Our culture of ostentatious caring is about projecting your ego and informing others what a deeply caring individual you are It is about feeling good not doing good and illustrates not how altruistic we have become but how selfish And as Patrick West shows in this witty but incisive monograph sometimes it can be cruel

Co-opting Culture Garrick B. Harden,Robert Carley,2009-06-16 Co opting Culture Culture and Power in Sociology and Cultural Studies represents a collection of new scholarship on culture from the social sciences and from work done under the rubric of cultural studies Working from the idea that Sociology and Cultural Studies have developed distinct and valuable toolkits for understanding culture the editors have brought together a collection of essays that address the ways in which the cultures around race sex and gender are mediated through or intersect with politics society and economy Some essays deal directly with the theoretical nature of this mediation while others adopt these theoretical approaches to investigate specific cultural objects or communities In doing so these essays call attention to the particularities of form that constitute a kind of cultural logic around the objects under consideration Secure the Soul

Kevin Lewis O'Neill,2015-01-16 I m not perfect Mateo confessed Nobody is But I try Secure the Soul shuttles between the life of Mateo a born again ex gang member in Guatemala and the gang prevention programs that work so hard to keep him alive Along the way this poignantly written ethnography uncovers the Christian underpinnings of Central American security In the streets of Guatemala City amid angry lynch mobs overcrowded prisons and paramilitary death squads millions of dollars empower church missions faith based programs and seemingly secular security projects to prevent gang violence through the practice of Christian piety With Guatemala increasingly defined by both God and gangs Secure the Soul details an emerging strategy of geopolitical significance regional security by way of good Christian living The Emotional Life of

Contemporary Public Memorials Erika Lee Doss,2008 In The Emotional Life of Contemporary Public Memorials Towards a Theory of Temporary Memorials Erika Doss examines this contemporary phenomenon of public commemoration in terms of changed cultural and social practices regarding mourning memory and publ The Emotional Life of Contemporary Public

Memorials Erika Doss, 2025-10-01 From the commemoration of September 11 to the Holocaust memorial in Berlin recent decades have witnessed a substantial increase in the number of new public memorials built in both Europe and the United States This volume considers the contemporary explosion of public commemoration in terms of changed cultural and social practices of mourning memory and public feeling Positioning memorials as the physical and visual embodiment of our affective responses to loss Erika Doss focuses especially on the memorial ephemera of flowers candles balloons and cards placed at sites of tragic death in order to better comprehend how grief is mediated in contemporary commemorative cultures The

Resurrection of Oscar Wilde Julia Wood, 2007 This absorbing book examines five events that have taken place to commemorate the 100 year anniversaries of Oscar Wilde's conviction for gross indecency in London and his death in Paris Through these events the author explores the ways in which Wilde's life and legacy continue to be influential Memorial

Mania Erika Doss, 2022-12-22 In the past few decades thousands of new memorials to executed witches victims of terrorism and dead astronauts along with those that pay tribute to civil rights organ donors and the end of Communism have dotted the American landscape Equally ubiquitous though until now less the subject of serious inquiry are temporary memorials spontaneous offerings of flowers and candles that materialize at sites of tragic and traumatic death In Memorial Mania Erika Doss argues that these memorials underscore our obsession with issues of memory and history and the urgent desire to express and claim those issues in visibly public contexts Doss shows how this desire to memorialize the past disposes itself to individual anniversaries and personal grievances to stories of tragedy and trauma and to the social and political agendas of diverse numbers of Americans By offering a framework for understanding these sites Doss engages the larger issues behind our culture of commemoration Driven by heated struggles over identity and the politics of representation Memorial Mania is a testament to the fevered pitch of public feelings in America today Parliamentary Debates, Senate, Weekly Hansard

Australia. Parliament. Senate, 2005 Ethics in Culture Astrid Erll, Herbert Grabes, Ansgar Nünning, 2008 Alongside the recent cultural turn in the humanities there has been a noticeable return to ethical considerations With regard to literature as well as other media this has rekindled awareness of a tension antagonism or even disparity between ethics and aesthetics This volume of articles takes a more systematic and cross disciplinary approach to the widely mooted ethical turn in literature and other media than has been pursued so far It brings together a wide range of critical perspectives from literary studies media and cultural memory studies and philosophy tracing the complex and sometimes conflicting relationship between ethics and aesthetics in theoretical contexts and individual case studies as diverse as colonial architecture nineteenth century literary histories and postmodern writing and art The Politics and Pleasures of Consuming Differently Kate Soper, Martin Ryle, Lyn Thomas, 2009 Analyzing representations and practices of consumption in the Western world this book offers a perspective on the themes of counter consumerism ecological crisis and sustainability It is suitable for students in media cultural and literary studies as well as in sociology and environmental studies Handbook of Bereavement

Research and Practice Margaret S. Stroebe, 2008 In this state of the art volume leading international scholars and clinicians provide a comprehensive and cross disciplinary overview of how rigorous research on bereavement translates into practice They identify new developments and controversies in the field relating new theories to concepts from attachment theory and emotion theory The effects of societal change and of national and international events on personal and public mourning are examined along with other areas of interest to practitioners such as grief and disaster posttraumatic growth and cultural competence in helping diverse clients cope with grief and bereavement New analyses use longitudinal data sets to trace patterns of adjustment trajectories of grieving over time and the use of coping resources The contributors also explore emerging research on the consequences of losing a loved one disenfranchised grieving continuing bonds and other critical areas Researchers and practitioners will find much to enrich and deepen their work in this thought provoking volume Cover PsycINFO Database Record c 2012 APA all rights reserved The Tablet, 1888 Nongovernmental Organizations in International Society Volker Heins, 2008-03-15 Combining insights from the English School of International Relations and recent Frankfurt School works Heins furthers the understanding of international nongovernmental organizations NGOs in radically new and unexpected ways The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2004 The Matter of Death J. Hockey, Carol Komaromy, Kate Woodthorpe, 2010-07-16 This title opens up spaces where lives end bodies are disposed of and memories generated hospitals hospices care homes coroners courts funeral premises cemeteries roadsides the spirit world Using material culture studies it illuminates the ways human beings make meaningful the challenges of death dying and bereavement Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2004 Review, 2004 The English Year Stephen Roud, 2006 The English Year is a lavishly illustrated day by day guide to all the customs and festivals of England from the national celebrations to herald the New Year down to small local traditions such as the Minehead Hobby Horse or Duck Racing in Oxfordshire As he explores the history and development of these fascinating traditions eminent folklorist Steve Roud paints vivid pictures of ancient local customs such as cheese rolling in Randwick and Punkie Night in Somerset and contemplates why some festivals such as Guy Fawkes Night and Whitsun have lost much of their previous importance while others such as Valentine s Day and Hallowe en have blossomed astonishingly in recent years The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006
