Constantinople In The Age Of Justinian:

Constantinople in the Age of Justinian Glanville Downey, 1991 This is the period of the Great Law Giver for Justinian prompted and encouraged the restatement of classical law which remains today one of the monumental achievements in its field It is one of many fruits of the civilization which combined and transformed the classical Greek and Christian traditions Justinian was completing the process begun by Constantine the Great who died in A D 337 of forming a new state a new society and a new culture to replace the disrupted Roman Empire As the chief center of the new civilization Constantinople was the place in which the government literature art and architecture of the new epoch found their fullest expression With Justinian s own creation the magnificent church of Sancta Sophia as its center Christianity can here be seen transforming the whole Near Eastern world according to its principles And not the least important part of this masterfully drawn picture is the piety the daily working of faith in a society at last dedicated to one God Dust jacket flaps Constantinople ,1960 The Age of Justinian J. A. S. Evans, 2002-01-04 The Age of Justinian examines the reign of the great emperor Justinian 527 565 and his wife Theodora who advanced from the theatre to the throne The origins of the irrevocable split between East and West between the Byzantine and the Persian Empire are chronicled which continue up to the present day The book looks at the social structure of sixth century Byzantium and the neighbours that surrounded the empire It also deals with Justinian s wars which restored Italy Africa and a part of Spain to the empire The Age of Justinian and Theodora William Gordon Holmes, 1907 The Cambridge Companion to the Age of Justinian Michael Maas, 2005-04-18 This book introduces the Age of Justinian the last Roman century and the first flowering of Byzantine culture Dominated by the policies and personality of emperor Justinian I 527 565 this period of grand achievements and far reaching failures witnessed the transformation of the Mediterranean world In this volume twenty specialists explore the most important aspects of the age including the mechanics and theory of empire warfare urbanism and economy It also discusses the impact of the great plague the codification of Roman law and the many religious upheavals taking place at the time Consideration is given to imperial relations with the papacy northern barbarians the Persians and other eastern peoples shedding new light on a dramatic and highly significant historical period Rome Resurgent Peter J. Heather, 2018 The era of the Emperor Justinian 527 68 intersects the fall of the western half of the Roman Empire in the fifth century and the collapse of the east in the face of rampant Arab invasions in the seventh Determined to reverse the losses Rome suffered in the fifth century Justinian s stubborn aggression in the face of all adversity not least the plague led the eastern Empire to overreach itself making it vulnerable to the Islamic takeover of its richest territories in the seventh century which turned the great East Roman Empire of late antiquity into its pale Byzantine shadow of the Middle Ages Rome Resurgent promises to introduce to a wide readership this fascinating but unjustly overlooked chapter in ancient warfare Logistics of Warfare in the Age of the Crusades John H. Pryor, 2016-12-05 How were the Crusades made possible There have been studies of ancient medieval and early modern warfare as well as work on the finances and planning of Crusades but this volume is the first specifically to address the logistics of Crusading Building on previous work it brings together experts from the fields of medieval Western Byzantine and Middle Eastern studies to examine how the marches and voyages were actually made Questions of manpower types and means of transportation by land and sea supplies financial resources roads and natural land routes sea lanes and natural sailing routes all these topics and more are covered here Of particular importance is the attention given to the horses and other animals on which transport of supplies and the movement of armies depended

Barker, 1966 The eastern half of the Roman Empire economically the stronger did not fall but continued almost intact safe in the new capital of Constantinople This empire is the subject of John Barker Jr's book and the central focus of his examination of questions of continuity and change Cyclopædia of Universal History: The ancient world John Clark Ridpath, 1885 An Age of Saints?, 2013-02-06 The papers collected in this volume explore the strategies through which Christian authorities throughout the early medieval world both established and expressed their social position while at the same time drawing attention to the moments when those same processes were resisted and challenged Where previous studies of Christianisation have for the most part approached the issue of dissent through the continued existence of paganism and the various Christian heresies this volume suggests that the experience of doubt towards and articulation of resistance to the claims of Christian leaders extended far outside the circles of pagan intellectuals and dissident theologians The result is a view of Christianisation as far more piecemeal complex and incomplete than has often been acknowledged Contributors include Peter Turner Peter Kritzinger Collin Garbarino Philip Wood Ralph Lee Richard Payne Mike Humphreys Giorgia Vocino and Gerda Heydemann
