Comparative Constitutions L.Wolf- Phillips,1972-06-18 Snarl Ruth A. Miller,2013-11-13 Ruth A Miller excavates a centuries old history of nonhuman and nonbiological constitutional engagement and outlines a robust mechanical democracy that challenges existing theories of liberal and human political participation Drawing on an eclectic set of legal political and automotive texts from France Turkey and the United States she proposes a radical mechanical re articulation of three of the most basic principles of democracy vitality mobility and liberty Rather than defending a grand theory of materialist or posthumanist politics or addressing abstract concepts or things writ large Miller invites readers into a self contained history of constitutionalism situated in a focused discussion of automobile traffic congestion in Paris Istanbul and Boston Within the mechanical public sphere created by automotive space Snarl finds a model of democratic politics that transforms our most fundamental assumptions about the nature and constitutional potential of life movement and freedom The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1889 Minutes of the Daily Proceedings, Alaska Constitutional Convention Alaska. Constitutional Convention,1965 The Haskins Society Journal 34 Person William North,Contributor Laura E Wangerin,2024-10-08 Essays illuminating a wide range of topics from Cistercian preachers and the geography of purgatory to royal and ecclesiastical justice and power This volume continues the Society s commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research from the early and central Middle Ages and demonstrates its belief that the close interrogation of primary documents yields new insights into or important recalibrations of our understanding of the past It begins by surveying the works of the Greek Fathers rendered into Latin in late antiquity exploring their reception and deployment in England before the conquest The twelfth century occupies a central place in this volume Four papers offer close readings or re readings of key authors or sources one reconstructs William of Malmesbury s journeys in the mid 1130s another offers a new reading of two of Aelred of Rievaulx s royal biographies a third considers the influence of Henry of Marcy on Herbert of Clairvaux s Liber visionum et miraculorum Clarevallensium and a fourth examines the Historia Gaufredi Ducis and its outsized impact on the history of the ritual of dubbing Two papers address royal and ecclesiastical justice in mid thirteenth century France through meticulous work with archival sources they respectively consider the case of Geoffroy de Milly and limits of sovereign authority and enqu tes as a technique of power Further topics include the emerging geography of purgatory in the imagination of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the different dimensions of medieval institutional culture as seen in the intersection of earthly and angelic power in Angevin England placed in dialogue with American medieval historiography and the evolving historiographical treatment of men of the Church employed as trusted administrators by Italian communes The volume concludes with two essays on significant moments in the history of American medieval studies examinations of the publication history of Evelyn Faye Wilson's Stella Maris of John of Garland and of the life scholarship and legacy of Bennett David Hill round out the volume Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1884 Constitution and Law IV, 2001 Current Law Index, 2005 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1896 Saturday Review, 1882 Making Rights Real Ian Leigh, Roger Masterman, 2008-08-29 Ten years after the passing of the Human Rights Act 1998 it is timely to evaluate the Act's effectiveness The focus of Making Rights Real is on the extent to which the Act has delivered on the promise to bring rights home To that end the book considers how the judiciary parliament and the executive have performed in the new roles that the Human Rights Act requires them to play and the courts application of the Act in different legal spheres This account cuts through the rhetoric and controversy surrounding the Act generated by its champions and detractors alike to reach a measured assessment The true impact in public law civil law criminal law and on anti terrorism legislation are each considered Finally the book discusses whether we are now nearer to a new constitutional settlement and to the promised new rights culture Saturday Review of Literature, 1926 The Triumph of Venus Jeanne Lorraine Schroeder, 2004-02-23 The theory of law and economics that dominates American jurisprudence today views the market as rational and individuals as driven by the desire to increase their wealth It is a view riddled with misconceptions as Jeanne Lorraine Schroeder demonstrates in this challenging work which looks at contemporary debates in legal theory through the lens of psychoanalysis and continental philosophy Through metaphors drawn from classical mythology and interpreted via Lacanian psychoanalysis and Hegelian philosophy Schroeder exposes the hidden and repressed erotics of the market Her work shows how the predominant economic analysis of markets and the standard romantic critique of markets are in fact mirror images reflecting the misconception that reason and passion are inalterably opposed Constitutional Metaphors Thomas Reed Powell, 1941 The Islamic Review, 1962 Constitutional Metaphors Thomas Reed Powell, 1941 American Philosophical Quarterly, 1971 The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-04-14 Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Part 1 Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Part 2 Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Part 3 Categories reviews research on the core social categories which are central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and social class and intersections between these Part 4 Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships and family life work places and environments and citizenship
