Constructing Multicultural Education In A Diverse Society:

Constructing Multicultural Education in a Diverse Society Ilghiz M. Sinagatullin, 2003 Professor Sinagatullin believes that a well built multicultural classroom is key to reducing racial ethnic religious class and gender prejudices Incorporating the notions of multiculturalis and globalism into one entity called multicultural education and focusing on a wide range of educational practices leads Sinagatullin s study to look at the various ethnic groups of Russia This book also explores issues of diversity in a rural setting as well as introduces the reader to issues of folk pedagogy and enthopedagogy that have previously remained unexplored

Making Choices for Multicultural Education Christine E. Sleeter, Carl A. Grant, 2008-10-13 Focusing on what multicultural education actually looks like in the classroom Making Choices for Multicultural Education Sixth Edition encourages all to examine the latest theoretical perspectives on multicultural education as well as personal beliefs about classroom diversity The authors show how schools reflect broad patterns of institutional discrimination and then offer five different approaches to addressing such problems in the classroom

Language in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2005-03-01 Many books on multicultural education focus on a country and provide indepth discussion of issues pertinent to that country at the time Alternately understanding of multicultural education is sought through comparison between a society of special interest and a reference society often the United States An interesting recent example is Constructing Multicultural Education in a Diverse Society by Ilghiz Sinagatullin 2003 drawing on the author s knowledge of Russia and more particularly the Republic of Bashkortostan itself an ethnically and culturally diverse part of Russia The approach taken in this volume is to focus on an aspect of diversity and look at its ramifications across the world This provides an understanding of the nature of multicultural education itself as well as insights into local issues through the experience of other places

Multicultural Education, 2006 Creating an Anti-Racist Curriculum for Children with Special Educational Needs Priya Bhagrath, 2025-05-30 This thought provoking and experience led book guides teachers and leaders to create anti racist practices and to develop a curriculum for children with SEND promoting cultural representation and giving all pupils a voice and a sense of belonging Informative and practical chapters challenge the reader to review their whole school system and policies taking them on a step by step journey through three main parts The book enables educators to understand how this work can be meaningfully applied when working with SEND pupils and families in all settings with topics covered including exploring what an anti racist curriculum is and why it s needed for pupils with SEND establishing buy in from school staff and meaningful support from key stakeholders creating an action plan and establishing accountability providing opportunities for high quality CPD for all stakeholders how to create a cultural calendar and curriculum offer of representation developing whole school practices to link to home and the community preparing pupils for life beyond school Pupils with SEND can access complicated topics if the subject matter is presented in a way that makes sense to them with purpose clarity and relevance to their lives This book provides essential content and guidance for professionals to follow and implement for the benefit of SEND pupils and will be key reading for educators working in mainstream education additional resource provisions SMEH provisions and special schools
