Constructing Democracy:

Engaging the Community in Decision Making Roz Diane Lasker, John A. Guidry, 2009-03-23 In recent years the rapidly growing field of community participation has promised to give people formerly excluded from decision making an influential voice about issues that affect their lives Inclusive processes implemented in the United States and internationally have certainly given community members new opportunities to participate and be involved but how effective are these processes in promoting the voice and influence of the people who have historically been excluded the most the poorest least educated and most marginalized residents in communities Of the various participants who have a seat at the table whose voices are influential whose aren't and why This book summarizes how five community partnerships working with a team of researchers attempted to answer these critical questions Investigating 10 cases two from each community partnership the study tracks the ideas of everyone involved and reveals how and why the ideas of marginalized and ordinary residents were far less likely to be influential than those of people with more clout resources or acknowledged expertise Finally the authors explain how and why these influence inequities can be overcome providing readers with practical evidence based tools to help them do so The book should be helpful to readers involved in any form of active community participation from participatory research to civic engagement deliberative democracy and community initiatives Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Making Democracy Work Better Richard A.

Couto, 1999 The decade of the 1980s marked a triumph for market capitalism As politicians of all stripes sought to reinvent government in the image of private enterprise they looked to the voluntary sector for allies to assuage the human costs of reductions in public services

Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies Larry Diamond, 1997-09-08 An in depth analysis of the struggle to consolidate new and fragile democracies available in two paperback volumes for course use The global trend that Samuel P Huntington has dubbed the third wave of democratization has seen more than 60 countries experience democratic transitions since 1974 While these countries have succeeded in bringing down authoritarian regimes and replacing them with freely elected governments few of them can as yet be considered stable democracies Most remain engaged in the struggle to consolidate their new and fragile democratic institutions Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies provides an in depth analysis of the challenges that they face Consolidating the Third Wave Democracies is available in two paperback volumes each introduced by the editors and organized for convenient course use The first paperback volume Themes and Perspectives addresses issues of institutional design civil military relations civil society and economic development It brings together some of the world's foremost scholars of democratization including Robert A Dahl Samuel P Huntington Juan J Linz Guillermo O'Donnell Adam Przeworski Philippe C Schmitter and Alfred Stepan The second paperback volume Regional Challenges focuses on developments in Southern Europe Latin America Russia and East Asia particularly Taiwan and China It contains essays by leading regional experts including Yun-han Chu P Nikiforos Diamandouros Thomas B Gold Michael McFaul Andrew J Nathan

Wing,2011-01-18 This book explores the process by which constitutions and democratic institutions are constructed Wing focuses on how innovative constitutional dialogues involving participation negotiation and recognition of groups previously excluded from political decision making may be the key to a legitimate constitution      The American Educational Review ,1911

Constructing Democracy in Transitioning Societies of Africa Susanna D. Wing,2008-04-15 Forty one different African states have adopted over fifty seven new constitutions since 1989 yet few of these have become foundations for democracy Failed transitions subsequent instability and violent conflict make it clear that democracy cannot simply be constructed by holding elections and implementing new constitutions Unlike other attempts to explain both the frequent failures and the success stories of African constitutionalism by focusing on constitutional outcomes Wing s study examines the process by which constitutions and democratic institutions are constructed Based on extensive field work in Mali this book explores how innovative constitutional dialogues involving participation negotiation and recognition of groups previously excluded from political decision making may be the key to a legitimate constitution Winner of the 2009 Best Book Award from the African Politics Conference Group      Why Politics Matters Gerry Stoker,2006-08-22 Achieving mass democracy was the great triumph of the twentieth century Learning to live with it will be the greatest achievement of the twenty first century A rising tide of discontent is posing a major crisis for systems of mass democracy the evidence is clear to see in reduced turnout and party membership and in opinion surveys The failures of politicians have played their part but Gerry Stoker argues equally important are the dysfunctional political stances and styles adopted by many citizens Democratic politics he argues is doomed to disappoint because it involves collective decision making demands complicated communication and generally produces a messy compromise one size fits no one So what is the solution Stoker suggests that democracy and the political class must create a new politics making it as easy as possible for as many people as possible to express and debate their political preferences      Building Democracy in Latin America John A. Peeler,2009 From the Publisher Approaching the topic from within the general realm of liberal democratic theory Peeler political science Bucknell U describes the processes of democratization in Latin America in recent years Writing at a level suitable for beginning undergraduates he presents chapters on democracy in the Latin American tradition institutions for stabilizing and consolidating democracies factors of destabilization and deconsolidation and the current state of democracy in Latin America Book News Inc      Making Paper ,1918      The Making of the American Republic Archer Butler Hulbert,1923      Administrative Procedures in Curriculum Making for Public Schools Walter Dewey Cocking,1928      The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1917      The Making of Canada Arthur Granville Bradley,1908      Congressional
