Constructing Spanish Womanhood Victoria Lorée Enders, Pamela Beth Radcliff, 1999-01-01 The first anthology in English on modern Spanish women's history and identity formation      Gendering Spanish Democracy Mónica Threlfall, Christine Cousins, Celia Valiente Fernández, 2005 Addressing aspects of women's experience such as the public spheres of elective politics public policy making the labour market this book offers an up to date critical assessment of gender in Spain      Censorship and Ideology Julia Lin Thompson, 2024-09-25 This book offers a fascinating picture of how state censorship affected children's literature translation in post Civil War Spain Focusing on the Spanish translations of Mark Twain's children's classics The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn the author traces the evolution of the censorship system of the Francoist regime and its impact on Spanish children's literature during the years after the Spanish Civil War Drawing on the regime's censorship laws official censors records and textbooks she not only examines the censorship imposed on the translations of Twain's works but also offers insights into the intricate connections between state censorship and the regime's educational aims The book gives a revealing analysis of the ways in which the highly bureaucratic censorship apparatus operated under Franco's dictatorship outlining the flaws and fallacies within it as well as the strategies adopted by publishers and translators to resist the power of the state While centred on Francoist Spain the book also explores broader themes of ideology censorship and translation making it a valuable source for scholars of translation studies and Hispanic studies as well as those with a wider interest in literature history and cultural studies      The Educated Woman Katharina Rowold, 2011-02-09 The Educated Woman is a comparative study of the ideas on female nature that informed debates on women's higher education in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries in three western European countries Exploring the multi layered roles of science and medicine in constructions of sexual difference in these debates the book also pays attention to the variety of ways in which contemporary feminists negotiated and reconstituted conceptions of the female mind and its relationship to the body While recognising similarities Rowold shows how in each country the higher education debates and the underlying conceptions of women's nature were shaped by distinct historical contexts      Life-Course Smoking Behavior Dean R. Lillard, Rebekka Christopoulou, 2015-05-26 Despite efforts to curb tobacco use global tobacco addiction remains as strong as ever Smoking rates are declining very slowly in advanced countries and they are increasing in the developing world Yet researchers still do not fully understand what drives smoking decisions Life Course Smoking Behavior presents smoking trajectories of different generations of women and men from ten of the world's most visible countries with nation specific representative samples spanning more than eighty years of recent history To inspire hypotheses on the determinants of smoking behavior the authors place these data in economic political social and cultural contexts which differ greatly both across countries at a particular time and over time in a given country Though significant research has been conducted on smoking statistics and tobacco control policies most descriptions of smoking behavior rely on cross sectional snapshot data that do not track individuals habits throughout their lifespan Lillard and Christopoulou s work is a unique and necessary text in its comparative life course approach making it a long overdue complement to the existing literature Life-course Smoking Behavior Dean Reginald Lillard,Rebekka Christopoulou,2015 This resource presents smoking trajectories of different generations of women and men from ten of the world s most visible countries with nation specific representative samples spanning more than eighty years of recent history To inspire hypotheses on the determinants of smoking behaviour the authors place these data in economic political social and cultural contexts which differ greatly both across countries at a particular time and over time in a given country

Families in Converging Europe Eriikka Oinonen,2008-04-30 Families in Converging Europe examines common familial trends and differences between Northern and Southern and Eastern and Western Europe from 1960s to early 2000s and discusses the most common theoretical explanations for convergence and divergence The interest lies in macro level social changes and in the interrelationship between the family and other social institutions In depth comparison of Finnish and Spanish cases as representatives of North and South Europe provides an example of how macro level changes affect both family ideology and practices Fashioning the Body Politic Wendy Parkins,2002-05 Fashion is often thought of as a matter of personal taste completely unconnected with the public domain of political life and citizenship This book reveals that fashion has played a significant role in political participation and protest Current Contents.
